

East-West Talks Reported Approaching Climax

No Butter Lack Until February Gardiner States

WINNIPEG (CP)—Federal Agriculture Minister Gardiner said today there is no shortage of butter now "and there is no possibility of any shortage until February."

The minister, en route to his farm home at Lemberg, Sask., for a holiday, made the announcement in reply to a statement by the National Dairy Council urging rationing of butter on the grounds there is a shortage.

"Statements of this kind can only result in driving more and more butter into storage across the Dominion," said Mr. Gardiner. "Then it is more difficult to obtain a clear picture of what the shortage in the spring will really mean."

Of the recent removal of the cattle embargo and the resultant price rise for cattle and beef, Mr. Gardiner said:

"It is expected prices both of cattle and beef will level out at a point between the American and Canadian prices. That point will depend on the grade of beef consumed in Canada and the freight and duty which must be paid in order to move the product from a point in Canada to a point in the United States."

Early Beef Rise Unlikely

OTTAWA (CP)—An agriculture department spokesman said today he believes retail beef prices will remain unchanged for at least a week. When they do increase as a result of removal of the embargo on shipments to the United States, the effect will be felt most in western Canada, he said.

"I think a great deal of this rumour over future meat prices is just scare psychology," he said. "I will be very surprised if the consumer won't be paying the same price for beef in a week or two as she is now.

"Local beef cattle are not going to have much effect on the American export market. Most American buyers regard local cattle as good only for fox food. Eastern beef cattle don't even approximate the quality level of top-grade steers on the Chicago and Buffalo livestock markets, because Canadian stocks are fed before slaughter on soft grains. "Most of the weight of cattle export will be felt in the western provinces."

Greek Army Hopes Soon To Wind Up Grammos Campaign

ATHENS (AP) — Government spokesmen said today there is little doubt the Grammos campaign against Communist rebels will end soon, and successfully for the Greek army.

A general staff spokesman said the defence line along the whole southwestern sector of the front had crumbled and War Minister George Stratos told the cabinet Monday night the guerrillas were abandoning war material and wounded in disorganized flight. Spokesmen said the rebel perimeter had been whittled down to 22 miles and Stratos said the army had captured the highest peak in the Grammos Mountains, once a major stronghold of the rebels.

Despite this optimistic picture, non-Greek military sources emphasized that victory in the Grammos area will not end the Greek civil war. There are thousands of rebels still scattered over Greece and they are busily engaged in sabotage and other forms of harassing activity.

Possible Beau Visits Princess

ABERDEEN, Scotland (AP)—John George Vanderbilt Henry Spencer-Churchill, the 22-year-old Marquis of Blandford whose name currently is linked romantically with that of Princess Margaret, went to Balmoral Castle today to be the guest of the Royal Family.

Pledge Broken; Leak Stirs U.S. Spy Probe Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee seethed today with a behind-the-scenes row over what one member called "a violation of an oath" by a committee member or staff aide.

It seems that a solemn promise not to talk was exacted from everyone present when Alger Hiss, former State Department official, testified at a closed-door session Monday. Yet morning papers published many details of what went on.

One angry member told reporters today that he will demand that the committee investigate the "leak." He asked them not to use his name until he makes formal demand at the committee's next session.

The committee has recessed its general investigation of alleged Communist spying for three weeks, but plans a meeting next week to bring Hiss and Whittaker Chambers face to face.

U.S. Secretary Of Defence Welcomed To Canada

James Forrestal, who concluded a two-day visit to Canada by journeying to Ogdensburg, N.Y., for a Canadian-U.S. anniversary ceremony today, is shown above (right) as Defence Minister Claxton greeted him on his arrival by plane at the Rockcliffe Airport, Ottawa, Sunday.

Field Marshal Appeals For 150,000 Reserves

BLACKPOOL, Lancashire, Eng. (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery asserted today the world is existing in "more of a truce than a peace," and called for 150,000 reserves to back up Britain's defences.

"A somewhat uneasy peace is brooding over the world," he said in a speech. "It is more of a truce than a peace; it is a period of exhaustion, ill-described as 'peace,'" he said.

"The Territorial (Reserve) Army is a vital factor in our system of national defence and preparedness," the chief of the Imperial General Staff said. "The best change of avoiding war in modern times is to be prepared." The Territorial Army now includes 35,741 men, 13,021 women and 7,473 officers—a total of 56,235.

After the first of next year all men who serve their one year of conscripted training in the army will be required to serve six years in the Territorials following their year of full-time service. "This will not begin to provide Territorials, however, until January, 1950."

All Britons of 18 years or older are subject to a year of military training. Present Territorial enlistment is voluntary.

Price Board Wants Facts On Grey Market In Butter

OTTAWA (CP) — A Prices Board official, commenting on rumors of "grey markets" and butter-hoarding, said today the board will be "glad" to have information on which prosecutions can be based.

"But let's not have just hints and inferences," said W. F. Spence, administrator of the enforcement division. "Let's have facts—and the board will be very happy to take action."

There is nothing illegal in the by-passing of usual markets, he said in an interview, unless the board's price ceilings are ignored in the process. For years, many retailers had bought directly from rural creameries.

In Montreal one large butter dealer said some farmers were cutting and wrapping butter and selling it to independent city dealers. These were selling it at high prices or holding it for an expected price increase.

There were also reports of some people installing home freezers and trying to buy as much as 50 pounds at a time to hoard against the expected time of scant supplies.

Russians To Sell New York School

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russian Embassy today advertised for sale the equipment of a school it has operated for children of Russian officials here.

Benjamin N. Matchavariani, Embassy press secretary, said the school was closed in June because "it was difficult to maintain the level of education necessary."

LATEST

Forrestal Called Back To U.S.

OGDENSBURG, N.Y. (CP) — United States Defence Secretary Forrestal this afternoon was called back to Washington for an "important conference at the White House."

Early Winter Sign

DUNCAN (CP)—Cowichan old-timers today predicted an early winter. Their barometers were early flights of geese.

Large flocks appeared over Somenos and Quamichan Lakes, then flew in a southerly direction. Farmers said it was the earliest southerly flight over Cowichan in many years.

Heavy Duty

VANCOUVER (CP) — Succession duties on the estate of the late Sheldon Dwight Brooks, former president of the Powell River Co. who died Sept. 4, 1946, totaled $1,266,000, it was learned here today. The net estate was $3,008,000.

Fewer Britons Work

LONDON (Reuter) — Britain's "working population" at the end of June numbered 20,286,000, a drop of 144,000 from the same period last year, official figures showed today.

Ogdensburg Pact Turning Point In War—Claxton

OGDENSBURG, N.Y. (CP) — Canada's Defence Minister Claxton today hailed the 1940 Ogdensburg Agreement on joint North American defence as the turning point in the recent war.

Both he and Defence Secretary Forrestal of the United States spoke at ceremonies that commemorated the historic decision of the late President Roosevelt and Prime Minister King by dedication of a plaque of friendship.

Thousands crowded into this St. Lawrence River city from neighboring Prescott, Ont., and elsewhere on the eighth anniversary of an agreement that has been extended into peacetime on a permanent basis. The ceremonies coincided with celebrations marking Ogdensburg's 200th birthday.

The peacetime extension of the agreement, the Joint Defence Board, had "dealt satisfactorily with all matters relating to our common defence."

"Few people on either side of the border realize how close our relations have been," he said.

Suspected, Indian Minister Resigns

NEW DELHI (Reuter) — R. K. Shanmukham Chetty told Parliament today he had resigned as Finance Minister because of "suspicion" about his intentions.

His conduct in ordering withdrawal of certain taxes referred to the income tax investigation commission had created this "suspicion," he said.

Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru congratulated him on "the way he has faced this issue bravely and frankly and accepted the fact that he had made a serious mistake."

Chrysler Prices Up

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—C. W. Churchill, president of the Chrysler Corporation of Canada, today announced a price increase on all Canadian-built Chrysler, Plymouth, Dodge and Desoto automobiles and on all Canadian-built Dodge and Fargo trucks.

He said the increase of retail prices—about 8 per cent and effective immediately—was the result of increasing cost of materials and labor.

Wed 5 Weeks—Separate

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — After five weeks of marriage, movie actor Robert Walker and Barbara Ford, daughter of film director John Ford, have separated. M-G-M studios said Monday night. She plans to institute divorce proceedings at once.

Canada's Wheat Crop Estimated More Than 1947

OTTAWA (CP)—The 1948 wheat crop for all Canada is estimated at 372,000,000 bushels, the Bureau of Statistics said today.

This is 31,000,000 bushels greater than last year's crop and about 35,000,000 bushels below the 1938-47 average.

The bureau's first estimate of the Prairie Provinces' spring wheat crop is 340,000,000 bushels, compared with 319,000,000 bushels last year.

For all of Canada, the estimated average wheat yield is 15.4 bushels an acre, compared with 14 bushels last year and the 10-year average of 17.1. The current crop will be harvested from an estimated 24,100,000 acres, compared with 24,300,000 in 1947 and 23,700,000, the 10-year average.

In the prairies, the wheat yield is expected to be 14.8 bushels an acre, with Manitoba averaging 22.9, Saskatchewan 12.3 and Alberta 17.3.

Estimated production of wheat in the other provinces is 32,000,000 bushels, of which Ontario's crop is expected to be 28,600,000 bushels. All but 1,200,000 bushels of the Ontario production is fall wheat.

Big Boulder Rolls On Vancouver Boy

VANCOUVER (CP) — Eleven-year-old Douglas Rodgers today nursed head-toe bruises suffered late Monday when a 700-pound boulder rolled down a creek bed and pinned him in shallow water.

Faint cries from the helpless lad attracted R. R. Keay, nearby West Vancouver resident, who dug away the creek bed gravel and pulled him out from underneath the rock. His face was only partially out of the water.

Young Rodgers suffered no internal injuries and was returned home after hospital attendants had treated his bruises.

24,000 On Strike At Harvester Plant

CHICAGO (AP)—In a quick change of last-minute signals, 24,000 workers in seven International Harvester plants were ordered on strike today. The workers are members of the United Automobile Workers' Union (C.I.O.).

Instructions to walk out followed by just a few minutes a union announcement that "International Harvester has made an offer . . . that is worth considering." The union then said Harvester had rejected further negotiations and that the strike was on in the contract dispute.

Wages were not involved in the dispute, which concerned grievances, apprenticeship and arbitration procedures. The union received an 11-cent increase on June 23.

Up-Island Trip

A trip to up-island industrial centres may be included in the Vancouver Island visit of a 15-man engineering markets mission from the United Kingdom which will arrive in Victoria Sept. 25. Plans for the up-island trip for the delegation now are being discussed by officials of the provincial trade and industry department.

The mission, which is being organized by the British Board of Trade and which will represent a wide range of Britain's engineering interests, will arrive in Victoria on the afternoon boat Sept. 25. The party is scheduled to return to Vancouver on the afternoon boat Sept. 28.

Purpose of the mission is to find markets for British goods.

MOSCOW (CP)—Foreign Minister Molotov is believed to have presented an "extremely important communication" regarding Germany at Monday night's Kremlin meeting with the three western envoys, informed western quarters said here tonight.

Nature of the communication was not disclosed and its presentation cannot be confirmed as yet by quarters closest to the envoys.

The fact that the envoys were even less communicative than ever following Monday night's meeting was held by some observers here to substantiate the report.

There was a fever of activity at all three western embassies today, especially the British quarters, where typists, Russian experts, cipher clerks and radio men were at work on the long full report of the three and a half hour meeting, the longest yet held.

The representatives of Britain, France and the United States conferred late today at the U.S. embassy.

A reliable informant said no meeting with Foreign Minister Molotov is expected tonight.

Observers, as much in the dark as ever about the previous four-power talks, expressed belief the length of Monday night's session indicated the conferees were getting down to concrete problems.

(A London informant said Monday Molotov was to give Russia's reply to western proposals for settlement of the Berlin deadlock at the meeting. He said the talk "might possibly be the climax" of the 18-day negotiations.

WISH TO SEE STALIN

(Diplomatic quarters in London said today they believed the western envoys in Moscow will definitely ask for a further talk with Prime Minister Stalin.

Hospital Denies New Drug Tried On Ruth's Cancer

NEW YORK (AP)—Memorial Hospital said today physicians had established "a year or two ago" that Babe Ruth had cancer, but denied reports that he had been treated with a new drug.

(New York newspapers reported that Ruth was one of the first human patients to be treated with teroperin. Therapy with the new drug reportedly was undertaken last year, however, before he entered Memorial Hospital. The hospital's statement apparently meant he had not been treated with the drug there.)

The hospital issued an official statement on Ruth's death. It said:

"Babe Ruth died of cancer. The tumor began in the nasopharynx, a part of the air passages back of the nose in a locality near the under surface of the skull which is inaccessible to surgery when involved by cancer. From this point the tumor had first grown out to press upon certain nerves which emerge from the brain, one of which partly supplies the motor function of the throat and the larynx. "Early in the course of his disease Babe Ruth suffered from paralysis of one of these nerves and as a result became hoarse and found it difficult to swallow. This symptom continued up to the time of his death.

"As in many cases of cancer, the growth spread from the point of origin and appeared in his neck. The diagnosis of cancer in this case was definitely established a year or two ago by the surgical removal of a lymph node from the neck for microscopic examination.

X-RAYS, RADIUM USED

"While in Memorial Hospital Babe Ruth received treatment by X-radiation and radium, and in addition such supportive treatment as was required from time to time for his general condition. He received no special drugs or chemicals in the attempt to control his tumor—no teroperin, a chemical which had been previously investigated at Memorial Hospital and found to be of no value in the treatment of cancer. "Death was due to complications arising from a spread of his tumor, not only locally but also to the lungs and liver." (See story of Ruth's death and sketch of his career, Page 11.)

Valuable Pilchards Staying Away From B.C. Waters Again This Year

Pilchards don't come here anymore!

This has been the wail of B.C. fishermen for the past two years and officials predict it will be the same this year. To British Columbia it means the loss of perhaps $3,000,000 worth of fish.

George J. Alexander, deputy minister of fisheries for the provincial government, reported today that fisheries experts at the Pacific Biological Station at Nanaimo again this year have predicted there will be few if any pilchards off the British Columbia coast. In 1943 pilchards worth more than $2,750,000 were caught in B.C. waters.

The pilchards are a fishery which B.C. fishermen share with their California brothers. Catches off the California coast this year have been heavy and that means that it is unlikely that the fish will find their way into B.C. waters this year.

Just in case the pilchards do come this way, however, several B.C. fishing companies have pilchard boats standing by. Sighting of schools of pilchards off the B.C. coast would send a large pilchard fleet into action.

What causes the pilchards some years to come as far north as British Columbia is a mystery. Experts believe the fish only come this far north if they are unable to find sufficient food in the southern waters.

In the past the federal fisheries department has used aircraft to try to locate the pilchard schools.

Some persons believe the pilchard fishery is being worked too hard and that it is being gradually depleted.

Discussing these problems in Bellingham today are fisheries experts. "Some persons hold out hope that a scheme for British Columbia and California fishermen to share the pilchards may be worked out in the future."

Alleges Washington Traffic In Babies

SEATTLE (CP) — Lloyd Shorett, King County prosecutor, said today there is a flourishing traffic in babies in Washington State that could and should be stopped by legislation.

Shorett said there is nothing in the present law to prevent persons charging any fee they can get in placing babies for adoption. Charges usually are made "under the guise of costs connected with delivery and hospital care, and the charge is usually several times the actual cost," he added.

Alberta Electors Go To Polls To Choose 57 M.L.A.'s From Among 173 Candidates

EDMONTON (CP)—Alberta's 11th general election today holds the answer to its Social Credit government's bid for a fourth term in office.

More than 450,000 voters are eligible to vote. For the Legislature's 57 seats there are 173 candidates in the field: A Social Credit nominee in every constituency, 51 C.C.F., 49 Liberals and nine Independents. A sprinkling of Independent Social Crediters, Labor-Progressives and others complete the list.

The Social Credit party has been in office three terms since its first election, a landslide into power in 1935. Today's voting determines whether it will get a fourth. If it does, it will be the first Alberta government to serve more than three terms.

The voting, which started at 9 a.m., M.S.T., had been preceded by the "tamest" campaign in memory. Rural polls will close at 6 p.m. (5 p.m., P.D.T.) but voters in Calgary, Edmonton, Medicine Hat and Lethbridge will have until 7 p.m. to ballot.

The weather generally was good, with showers indicated in the late evening in Calgary and Lethbridge areas. Harvesting is general throughout the province, but opinion has been that it would not lessen the turn-out.

Numerous issues, none major, were raised during the campaign, but it was fought principally on the basis of the Social Credit government's record.

Until lately the hutsings were poor crowd raisers. Country rallies were slightly more popular than city meetings, where one was canceled when no one turned up. One night showed a combined attendance of under 40 at four Edmonton meetings. Radio broadcasts, however, reached 10 daily, varying in length from five minutes to half an hour.

Premier Manning and his cabinet used both media to stress the government's administrative showing. Its financing would eliminate the province's public debt within 32 years, it was claimed. It had reduced the proportion of each tax dollar that went into debt-interest charges from 50 to 14 cents.

Of his opponents, Premier Manning described the C.C.F. as "the slippery slope of socialism down to Communism" and the Liberals as "dead and buried once and for all in the provincial field."

SLUSH FUND CHARGE

Harper Prowse, 35-year-old Liberal leader, said the government was holding office by "false pretences." The government had abandoned its avowed economic theories and used taxpayers' money to finance a "slush fund." The Liberals, who had no seats in the last

House, said that if elected they would inaugurate a $100,000,000 road-building program, raise old age pensions to $40 monthly, further rural electrification and assume half the cost of education.

Mr. Prowse said "fear of the C.C.F. was the only thing that put the government into power at the last election."

C.C.F. Leader Elmer Roper largely ignored the Liberals, concentrating his attack against the government.

The voters' choice, he said, was between Social Credit and Socialism.

Social Credit had "lost its crusading spirit" and become an "old line party." It was conservative.

FREE MEDICAL CARE

The C.C.F. promised free hospital and medical care, socialization of at least half Alberta's oil resources, and rural electrification. It denied it would socialize agriculture.

Rural electrification became an issue when the government announced a plebiscite in conjunction with today's balloting. The plebiscite asks whether taxpayers want continued development and distribution of electricity by private enterprise, or whether they want the Alberta Government Power Commission to assume responsibility.

While the plebiscite result will be known tonight, the election outcome may be longer delayed. Some observers see the possibility, if many seats are closely contested, that the result of the election may not be known until late Wednesday or Thursday.

Picnic Aboard Launch

DUNCAN—A launch trip to Fulford Harbor, Salt Spring Island, featured the annual picnic of the Elderly Citizens' Club of Duncan. Lunch and tea were served aboard the vessel. Seventeen members attended the picnic.

Parkville House Gutted By Fire

PARKVILLE—A five-room cottage owned by Mrs. K. Levers and occupied by a family of four was destroyed by fire here Saturday. No one was injured. The fire is believed to have broken out in the kitchen where a member of the family was heating tar for roof repairs. The blaze destroyed the family's furniture and personal belongings. ## Reports Olympics Most Impressive Sight To See

"The most impressive event one could wish to see."

This is how Miss E. N. Hincks, of Langford, summed up her impressions of the Olympic Games in a letter to her mother. Miss Hincks has been teaching in England for the past year and is expected to return to Victoria this fall.

Miss Hincks wrote that she went four days to the games and saw the swimming, diving and most of the field sports. She particularly enjoyed the tennis finals.

"I'll never forget the way a Jamaican dardle ran," she writes. "He was six feet-four and he ran around the track like a graceful ballet dancer." It was absolutely perfect.

She said the Dutch woman, Mrs. Fanny Blankers-Koen, a 30-year-old mother with two children, who took part in the hurdle event, was an unforgettable sight. "She went over the hurdles with the speed of a greyhound," she said.

The writer said it was interesting to watch the competitors "warming up" just before a race. "They come out about 15 minutes before a race and go through the wildest antics," she said. "Some do dozens of somersaults, some lie on their backs and do bicycle exercises, and others do high kicks up and down."

"It was amusing to see some of the competitors undressing for a race," she goes on. "A Bermuda boy took off three pairs of trousers, three sweaters, a towel and a dressing gown."

She said after a hot spell it rained considerably. "The poor Indians came on the field dressed in blankets and shivering when the colder weather set in," states the writer.

"The water polo is the most exciting part of the Olympics," she states. "I saw almost all the countries play. The game between Italy and Belgium was a very dirty match. Two were continually fighting in the water and the referee had to order them out. After a goal is scored they can return to the game."

Miss Hincks said through television Londoners were able to see the games in their homes or in the movies.

gade were able to save the frame and foundation of the building. Fire Chief Stuart Harrison and Warren Banks were in charge of the local brigade.

Report Red Rocket Guns At British Zone Border

BERLIN (AP)—The British-licensed newspaper Telegraf said today the Russians have sealed off an area along the Soviet-British border near the city of Salzwedel and have set up rocket guns there. The report has not been confirmed by any other source.

Some observers thought the report might refer to Soviet army summer manoeuvres near the zonal frontiers. A report from Hamburg Monday quoted German border police in the British zone as saying these manoeuvres were nearly over.

German border-crossers in the area reported seeing heavy Russian artillery and tank columns moving around Salzwedel, apparently in manoeuvres.

The Telegraf previously claimed to have learned from German witnesses that the Russians were digging trenches and "building a security border" on their zonal frontiers.

The American-licensed Dena news agency said a former German policeman had been kidnapped by the Russians across the U.S.-Soviet frontier.

"By legal or illegal means" ... MARSHAL ROKOSSOVSKY kidnapped by the Russians across the U.S.-Soviet frontier. The man was identified as Willie Koehler, who formerly lived in the Russian zone, but was reported to have moved to the U.S. zone when he refused to take employment offered him by the Russians.

Rumors were revived today that Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, Russian commander in Germany, has been superseded.

TASK FOR ROKOSSOVSKY?

The Liberal Democratic newspaper Montags-Echo said Sokolovsky eventually would be replaced by Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky. It said the latter had been given the task of converting the Soviet-sponsored German Socialist Unity Party (S.E.D.) from a mass party into a central group with the aim "of gaining power by legal or illegal means in Germany."

Union Offers Reward For Beater Of Striker

SEATTLE (AP)—The Aeronautical Mechanics' Union (Ind.) has offered a $250-reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of two men the union said beat a crippled Boeing striker early Sunday. The union has been on strike against the Boeing Airplane Company since April 22.

50 Men Searching For Missing Farmer

A party of 50 men were combing the woods in Wellington district, eight miles north of Nanaimo, for Gordon Brown, 34, missing since 5.30 Monday morning when he left his farm to milk cows, provincial police reported today.

Trained police dogs are being used in the search, police said. Police fear the man may have met with an accident while chasing a deer off the ranch, which is near Long Lake, Wellington.

U.S. Spy Probe Suspended 3 Weeks; Evidence At Odds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States spy drama went into a three-week intermission today as the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee admitted failure in its hunt for a perjured witness.

Meanwhile, Senator Homer Ferguson (Rep.-Mich.) struck out anew at the government's loyalty program. He declared several persons suspected of spy activities have stayed in "sensitive" federal jobs "either through influence or neglect."

The House committee ran down the curtain with a terse statement that "we will resume public hearings on the espionage case, Tuesday, Sept. 7."

That announcement followed a three-hour session behind bolted doors Monday at which the committee apparently failed to budge the story of Alger Hiss.

Hiss, former state department official who now heads the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, has insistently denied any part in the "elite" Communist underground movement depicted by Whittaker Chambers. Hiss has said furthermore that to the best of his knowledge he didn't even know his accuser.

Chambers, a senior editor of Time Magazine, has testified that he gave up Communism in 1937 after having been a part of the underground that brought him into contact with Hiss and took him into Hiss' home.

Both men made their statements under oath. Both have been questioned secretly by the committee since then. But the committee publicly admitted Monday that it didn't know "which one is telling the truth."

The two originally were scheduled to have faced each other before the committee Monday. But either through a misunderstanding or a change in signals, Hiss was the only one present.

BOLTON, Ont. (CP)—A man identified as Bernard Cousol, Toronto, kept a date with death near here Sunday. He was found in his automobile, the victim of carbon monoxide fumes from a flexible tube attached to the car's exhaust pipe.

Beside the dead man lay a novel entitled "A Date With Death."

Both men are officials of the Jerusalem Electric Corporation, and are two of the five Britons originally arrested by the terrorist Irgun Zvai Leumi. Their three colleagues were released.

Sylvester Monday was accused of complicity in the Ben Yehuda Street explosion, in which many Jews were killed, and 12 other charges including spotting for Arab artillery and passing information to the Arabs by radio.

The magistrate specifically criticized one report which referred to the accused as "spies and traitors."

BRINGING IN THE SHEAVES

RECENT NEWS REPORTS OF A FOOD shortage in the Russian zone of Germany have been given emphasis by a dispatch from Berlin which says that farmers in the Soviet-occupied territory have been ordered to harvest their crops whether they are ripe or not. Such a move would appear to stem only from desperation. The official instruction reveals a food situation that carries grim forebodings for the coming winter. And it recalls, too, that even a Communist-controlled economy cannot produce more than the soil, the weather and human labor will permit.

If the food problem is equally pressing in Russia proper, then the German farmers can become resigned to the fact that they will receive little of their own output for consumption. In contrast to conditions in the western zones, where Britain and the United States have been shipping food and other assistance ever since the war ended, the Soviet zone has been systematically stripped of factories, machinery, and farm produce for the benefit of the U.S.S.R. We hold no brief for the former followers of Adolf Hitler, but economic laws cannot be flouted indefinitely and there is little point in the Western Allies pouring supplies into the former Reich while Russia equally determinedly removes them.

In this connection, another news item from Prague provides an insight into Communist methods. If any Canadian farmer still thinks the Soviet system would benefit him, let him note that Czech producers are now being called on to explain, where necessary, why they failed to deliver the quotas of food set for them. The levies on farmers for potatoes, for instance, have in many cases been so heavy that even next year's seed stocks have been requisitioned. And, as the Communist-dominated Union of Czech Farmers is reported to have suggested: "National managers should be imposed on all farms owned by agricultural saboteurs and by those who fail to fulfill their quotas." Reading between the lines, one might surmise that the Czech farmers have not been wholly co-operative with their Communist masters. Will any free man blame them?

BETTER FOR ALL

POSSIBLY NO SINGLE ASPECT OF their visit to Canada creates a greater impression on American tourists than the quality of the hotel or auto court accommodation provided. A poor bed, a dirty bathroom, a slovenly cottage can tinge the whole trip with disappointment and serve to destroy the atmosphere of hospitality and friendliness that brings neighbors back for a return visit.

With this in mind, it should be welcome news to the tourist industry and the general public that a classification system for resorts and tourists camps throughout British Columbia is being put into effect by the provincial government. About two-thirds of such institutions in the province have now been rated, with the best being permitted to display a four-star certificate, and lesser grades three, two, one or none. The classification system should have the double benefit of encouraging individual "motels" to raise their standards to the highest possible and of avoiding disappointment on the part of the tourist by letting him know what to expect in the way of accommodation before he registers for the night.

WORDS WITHOUT ACTION

REGARDLESS OF WHETHER MR. TRUMAN expected the special session of the 80th Congress to give effect to such measures as he recommended to the law makers on Capitol Hill, and irrespective of whether the chief executive considered his was a wise move to make political capital for the Democratic Party, the fact remains that both Houses of Congress virtually threw out nearly all the major proposals which emanated from the White House.

While none of the foregoing is Canada's business, there is so much in the legislative procedure of the neighboring republic which affects the political and economic affairs of this Dominion that we may be entitled to indulge in interpretive comment. For example, Congress took no action on the following: The excess profits tax, the regulation of commodity speculation, rent controls, price controls and limited wage controls, a long-range housing bill, increase in old-age insurance aid, liberalism of legislation admitting displaced persons and financial aid to education.

Most of these proposals for legislative enactment, of course, are peculiar to and important for our neighbor's economy. But it stands to reason that if the great republic on the southern side of the 49th parallel does not give legislative effect to proposals in which the general welfare of the people is concerned, there remains always the likelihood that such an attitude of mind which negatives most of the crucial progressive plans for the future welfare of society may militate against such programs advocated and supported by the people of other lands.

MORE PLAIN TALK

WHEN LORD BEVERIDGE RETURNED to his Northumberland estate in Britain the other day he gave an interview to a London newspaper correspondent in which he analyzed the impressions his recent trip to the Antipodes had made upon him. It was not surprising that the author of the British scheme of security "from the cradle to the grave" should be meticulous in his refusal to criticize any of those political systems which he had considered during his sojourn in the southern seas. But it is to be noted that this distinguished Briton, who had given such important assistance to Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Winston Churchill on social matters—three years before the outbreak of the First Great War—should hark back to those fundamental principles upon which harmonious relationship between capital and labor depend for their mutual progress.

It is not necessary at this stage to recall the objections to those measures of social and economic readjustment to which many British statesmen prior to the First Great War gave their eloquence and considered opinion. But not even the most ardent British Socialist would suggest that Lord Beveridge nurses at the back of his most fertile and progressive mind anything which might savor of what some easy-going people would describe as reaction. With that in mind, therefore, here are some of the suggestions which he gives to the people of Britain:

1. Everybody must work as hard as they can while they are at work.
2. They must work longer hours where short hours are being worked.
3. They must raise no objections to anybody coming in to work who can help to produce more.

Such admonition may be difficult to digest by that element of British society which had begun to console itself with the idea that the Socialist Government had solved most of the problems with which the 47,000,000 people of the United Kingdom for so long had been troubled. But it is not for Canada, or Canadians, to tell Great Britain what she should or should not do. The suggestion which Lord Beveridge has given to the people of Great Britain, however, is such common sense and so logical as to commend itself to the peoples of all countries who are not afraid of being told where they are wrong and what they ought to do to correct their ways.

AS THE TWIG IS BENT

IN CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA, last week-end, police rounded up a gang of 20 masked children, aged from 9 to 15, who were pretending they were "junior Ku Klux Klansmen." The youngsters, in keeping with their characterizations, had been ransacking automobiles, stealing bicycles and beating smaller children. The bare facts of the story provide all the comment that is necessary. But we wonder how the local Klansmen, who set the example for their children, are feeling today.

SOMETHING SLIPPED?

THE AVERAGE CANADIAN CITIZEN must be a little perplexed, after reading Communist reports of the heaven on earth that has been established in Russia and the Soviet satellites, to see how many residents of the "promised land" seem eager to get out of it. We are told that at least eight Olympic stars from behind the Iron Curtain have refused to go back to their homes. Six Czechs and two Hungarians are seizing the opportunity to get away from Communist domination now that they have attained the refuge of Britain's shores.

The disappearance of Red Army soldiers became a commonplace after the close of the war, when they had had a glimpse of western living and a chance to escape to it. Reports say desertions among the Russian occupation troops are on the increase. To this might be added the definite refusal of thousands of displaced persons to be returned to lands now under the hammer and sickle. The aftermath of the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia has revealed a succession of escapes by plane or otherwise of persons who could not stand totalitarian living. The case of the Russian school teachers in New York, who are reluctant to return to their homeland now that their duties in the United States have been concluded, provides a further example. The "worker's paradise" would seem to have a few flaws, else why do so many grab the first chance to escape?

NEVER BET ON POLITICS

OUR ESTEEMED CONTEMPORARY THE Calgary Daily Herald a week or so ago said this among other things:

"Premier Maurice Duplessis did more in Wednesday's election than cut the Liberal opposition to a corporal's guard. He eliminated the C.C.F., and he gave the Union of Electors (Social Credit) a setback from which it may not recover. More important, however, is the possible effect of the Union Nationale victory on federal politics. Premier Duplessis may well have destroyed the chances of the federal Liberals in the next election. And, if anything is certain in politics, he has irreparably damaged the chances of Hon. Louis St. Laurent obtaining the Liberal leadership. Since Mr. St. Laurent was one of the most active campaigners for Adolphe Godbout's Liberals, their defeat was his defeat."

Most practical newspapermen, particularly if they were brought up in the smell of printer's ink, were told to avoid betting on the weather, horse races, and political elections. If the editorial writer of the Calgary Daily Herald had received a similar injunction in his early days, he would have refrained from being too wise before the event.

This is merely a comment on the type of Canadian psychology which seeks refuge in generality. And if there is anything our country demands and expects more than anything else at this stage of its progress, it is solid thought, plus unity of purpose.

Left Undone

By PETER EDSON from Washington

IF PRESIDENT TRUMAN had any previous doubts about which was the worst Congress, they should all be gone by now.

For the brush-off which the Republican leadership has given to his anti-inflation proposals was really of hurricane proportions. It swept everything he laid on the table right into the wastebaskets.

If by so doing the congressmen think they can go home leaving clean desks and clear consciences behind them, they may be headed for unpleasant surprises. The facts and figures which administration leaders finally got together for presentation to Congress may rise like ghosts out of the scrapheaps into which they were swept, to haunt the homing congressmen in the months and years ahead. In summary, Congress was warned that a business crash is inevitable unless something is done to avert it.

SEN. ROBERT A. TAFT'S joint committee on the economic report, which is supposed to be interested in such matters, did not even consider them. Last spring this committee "investigated" but did nothing about $5-a-ton steel price increases. The more recent $9-a-ton increases have been completely ignored.

President Truman pointed out in his press conference statement that Senate and House Agriculture Committees never even met to see if there was anything they might do to increase food supplies or cut down prices to the consumer.

HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS and Senate Finance Committees, which handle tax matters, did not meet to consider President Truman's suggestions for the return of excess corporations profits taxes.

The House Banking and Currency Committee went through the motion of holding hearings on the proposed anti-inflation bill. But this committee under Chairman Jesse Wolcott of Michigan refused to receive testimony from Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, Secretary of Interior Krug.

Wolcott, completely dominating his committee, went ahead in his own way to introduce his own version of a credit-control bill. It may do some good over the long haul. But don't expect to take a copy home, hand it to your wife and expect that she will ever buy with it any more groceries for any less money.

ON THE OTHER SIDE OF the Capitol, Chairman Charles W. Tobey's Senate Banking and Currency Committee turned in the only praiseworthy record of the special Congress, not only on inflation, but in Tobey's effort to save the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill.

From Brannan the Tobey committee heard that further increases in food prices—particularly meat prices which have already more than doubled in the last two years—are due this year. The time to have started holding meat prices in line was six months ago, he said.

From Sawyer the committee heard that the problem confronting the country was of the utmost seriousness. It cannot be met by increased production, which is already at capacity levels. What is needed, said Sawyer, is limited control to hold abnormal factors of demand in check, and priorities to channel scarce goods to essential production.

FROM KEYSERLING the committee heard that inflation is now working hardship on millions of families. Industrial prices are being pushed to such heights that goods cannot be disposed of. There is danger of an economic explosion. The race upward between prices and wages is unsettling all business conditions. All such spiraling booms have in the past ended in busts.

To those congressmen and others who maintain that this is just a lot of scare stuff, the best answer was given by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, who cited what had happened to potatoes.

In November, 1946, Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson wrote Congress that under the then existing price-support law 20,000,000 bushels of potatoes would be grown for which there would be no market. Anderson asked that the law be changed so that the government wouldn't have to buy them up and destroy them.

CONGRESS PAID NO ATTENTION, took no action. The result was that in 1946 and 1947 the potato price support program cost the government $130,000,000. It may cost another $20,000,000 this year.

One hundred and fifty million dollars is an awful lot for the taxpayers to shell out for congressional refusal to listen to expert advice. But that's only a smidgin compared to what the cost would be for a real depression.

Quoting

The lack of a precise foreign policy could lead to a 25-year war. Today there are three powder-keg areas—Berlin, China and Palestine.—Sen. George Malone (R) of Nevada.

Germany is a key country. It can unlock the door on renewed European prosperity. That's why it's so important in E.R.P.—Lee Dayton, E.R.P. official.

Any future conflict may well be like a pistol duel—if we don't win in the draw, it will be too late.—Lt.-Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, head of U.S. Air Defence Command.

The airplane and modern means of communication have made the world one geographically and it certainly will become one politically by conquest or . . . through free choice of the people of the world.—Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago.

Never Underestimate A Woman

By Question And Answer

From Industry

THERE'S always somebody trying to pull the capitalistic system to bits, but there's always a good answer. Mr. Phelps Adams' reply to a diabolically cunning letter addressed to him in care of the New York Sun early this year is a classic and, because his answer squares completely with the economic facts, it is worthy of added dissemination.

THE DIALOGUE

Part of the letter writer's argument took the form of a dialogue which ran like this:

"What did you tell that man just now?"
"I told him to hurry."
"What right have you to tell him to hurry?"
"I pay him to hurry."
"How much do you pay him?"
"Ten dollars a day."
"Where do you get the money to pay him?"
"I sell products."
"Who makes the products?"
"He does."
"How many products does he make in a day?"
"Sixteen dollars' worth."

"Then instead of your paying him, he pays you six dollars a day to stand around and tell him to hurry."

"Well, but I own the machines."
"How did you get the machines?"

"Sold products and bought them."

"Who made the products?"

"Shut up! He might hear you!"

ON THE OTHER HAND

Mr. Adams' reply, using the same dialogue technique:

"Who is that man sitting over there?"
"He's working for me."
"What is he doing?"
"He is running that machine over there in front of him."
"How much do you pay him?"
"Twelve dollars a day."
"Where do you get the money?"
"I sell products."
"Who makes the products?"
"He and the machine he is running."
"How many products do they make in a day?"
"Fourteen dollars' worth."
"How much of the work does the man do?"

"About five per cent of it; 70c worth."

"How much does the machine do?"

"About 85 per cent; or about $12 worth."

"How did you get the machine—by selling products?"

"Heavens, no! I had to buy the machine before there were any products and before there was even a job for the man."

"Then where did you get the money?"

"A lot of people who saved it invested $6,500 in that machine and charge me for using it."

"How much do you pay them for using that machine?"

"About 4 per cent, 70c a day."

MORE FOR LESS

"Hey, let me get this straight! You pay the man $12 a day for doing 70c worth of work, and you pay the owners of the machine 70c a day for doing $12 worth of work?"

"That's right."

"Good Lord, man, they belong in the booby hatch!"

"Shut up! That's what worries me!"

The Men Behind The Wallace Gun

By BURTON S. HEATH From New York

SIX New Mexican leaders left Henry Wallace's party. They said the Communist Party is leading it "toward goals we cannot accept." Here is specific evidence, if any was needed, that the Progressives contain many innocents who will not stay hitched, once they are convinced that the Red fifth column has taken control.

For such as these, we recommend evidence presented by Counterattack, in its Who's Who of the Wallace convention and party. It has been gathered by ex-G-Men, and it fits perfectly into everything else that is known.

FITS PERFECTLY

Counterattack names 26 key Wallace party stalwarts, who either admit Communist membership or have been identified by credible ex-Bolsheviks. It names 17 others who have been prominently associated with the party's work in this country, though there is no evidence that they pay dues and carry membership cards.

Counterattack lists, as actual party members, Paul Robeson, Progressive Party co-chairman; former Congressman Jerry O'Connell, vice-chairman; Mrs. Charlotte Bass, co-chairman of Women for Wallace; Charles Collins and Arthur Osman of the national committee; Earl Robinson, song leader; Dolph Winnebrenner, in charge of newsreels for the convention; two members of the Credentials Committee, five of the Platform Committee, three of the Nominations Committee.

MORE OFFICIALS

It describes as "party liner," "high party liner," fellow-traveler or collaborator in party fronts and other activities such functionaries as Albert J. Fitzgerald, permanent chairman of the convention and co-chairman of the Progressive Party; Louis Adamic, convention secretary; C. B. Baldwin, party secretary and campaign manager; Clark Foreman, party treasurer; Chairman Vito Marcantonio of the convention Rules Committee; Congressman Leo Isacson of the party's national committee; former Governor Elmer A. Benson of Minnesota, chairman of the national committee.

Important convention committees described as outright Communists include Lee Pressman, general counsel of the C.I.O. until he and Philip Mar- ray parted company over communism and Henry Wallace; Harry Bridges, west coast labor leader; Julius Empack, one of two Communists who dominate the C.I.O. electrical workers and their non-party president, Fitzgerald; Mrs. Paul Robeson, wife of the singer; Hugh Bryson, who was secretary of the powerful Rules committee as Pressman was of the committee that wrote a platform that did not deviate in any way from the Communism.

Counterattack also mentions, among important convention speakers, the Red novelist Howard Fast and the music critic, Olin Downes, "comrade of the comrades," who has joined in many Communist fronts.

And finally, among leading delegates and party members, Louis Adamic, who has not been identified as a dues-paying party member, but who for years has devoted his literary talent to defending Communist causes and defaming anti-Communists.

BREAKING AWAY

This is just a summary of what the ex-F.B.I. agents serving Counterattack have found. Maybe it gives some idea why non-Communists, sucked into the new party because of disgust with the older groups, are beginning to break away.

Misleading Adage

Halifax Herald

The death of a 45-year-old Ottawa teacher following a championship tennis match gives emphasis if tragic emphasis to a warning so often repeated.

The adage about a man being only as old as he feels has some truth in it, but it can be misleading, dangerously misleading, if taken literally. A man is really as old as a thorough medical check-up indicates. And the wise man undergoes such a check-up regularly and thus knows what games he can safely enjoy and how vigorously.

Global Survey

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Associated Press News Analyst

MOSCOW is intensifying its drive to communize south-east Asia, that vast and strategic theatre, including Burma, the Malay Peninsula, French Indo-China and Indonesia.

This intensification comes as the Communist offensive in Europe has been slowed to a crawl by the vigorous resistance of the western powers. Thus we can look on it in part as a matter of cause and effect. However, I believe we must attach more significance than that to the development, for the signs seem to read that the weight of the Communist world revolution will be shifted to the Far East.

MAJOR BATTLE GROUND

In short, the indications are that Asia may become the major battle ground between Communists and democracy.

The Communists indicated the importance of this Oriental offensive recently when it became known that a Far East Communist information bureau had been established at Bangkok, Siam. This eastern Cominform supplements the European organization that is generally regarded as having been created to take the place of the comintern, or general staff for world revolution.

As might be expected, Indonesia is coming in for a particularly heavy assault by the Communists. The Netherlands government having announced plans for establishment of an independent United States of Indonesia in 1949, this is the witching hour for the Reds to create as much confusion as possible and so keep the situation fluid until Communism can establish a Soviet state.

LAUNCH HEAVY OFFENSIVE

In the midst of the confusion the Communists have launched a heavy offensive. The over-all campaign is directed by the Cominform in Bangkok but a Moscow-Trai E.J. Javanese leadership is organizing youth in revolutionary methods. The Red influence is increasing and Java is the centre of the Communism.

There is a peoples' democratic front which is formed of full leftist parties, and this is dominated by the Communists. The trade union influence also is increasing and the unions are affiliated with the Communists.

The governments outside the Republic are said to have requested The Netherlands to establish an interim government to bridge the gap between now and the setting-up of the projected United States of Indonesia next year. The Netherlands government is said to be considering this proposal. Should such a regime be inaugurated, the Republic would be invited to join.

TWO C'S

Ottawa Citizen
Mr. Winston Churchill has unofficially been given his place in history. He and Julius Caesar are the world's two outstanding figures of the last 2,000 years who have "combined pre-eminence in action with pre-eminence in letters."

NO PROPAGANDA WANTED

Winnipeg Free Press
Government newspapers have no place in the free system of government. They are a natural and, indeed, an inevitable, part of the totalitarian system—Communist or Fascist. It follows that the CBC, being a government-owned and controlled corporation ought not to engage in facsimile broadcasting.

MAN BEHIND THE GUN

Toronto Globe and Mail
A man need not be a Rhodes scholar to fire a 25-pounder field gun, nor a Ph.D. to help service an airplane. In view of the times in which we live, it would seem that it is better to have an army, navy and air force of reasonably well educated people than to have no army, navy or air force at all, because the entrance standards are too stiff for the average citizen willing to serve.

TRUE BLONDES?

Ottawa Journal
It was Anita Loos, if we remember rightly, who wrote a book during the late depression about gentlemen preferring blondes. It seems, if we read right the headlines, that everybody else does. Those gangster "molls," especially in Chicago, they are always blondes. And always, too, those gals they call "starlets," and the winners of beauty contests, and the sleek numbers that Varga used to draw in Esquire. What has happened to the brunettes? Have they vanished from the earth or all been drowned in a sea of cosmetics—or is it just that they are deficient in the art of public relations? Here, it may be, is a rich field for the advertising agents.

U.K. Welcome Warm Despite War Scars, Says Recent Visitor

Britain is still a country of warm welcome, hospitality and kindness despite the scars it bears from the horrors of war, according to Anthony Williams, who has returned to Victoria following a four-month visit to the United Kingdom.

Mr. Williams said the entire experience proved stimulating and interesting to one who anticipated much gloomier conditions.

He found a great love and respect for Canada was apparent, stemming from the happy war-time relations. "So often at meals with friends the remark was made, 'God Bless Canada,' as we shared the contents of some parcel sent from this country," Mr. Williams recalled.

Having seen the King and Queen on their silver wedding anniversary and other public occasions, he was impressed by the affectionate relations between Their Majesties and the people and the fearless freedom with which the royal couple move about the country.

Mr. Williams, who spent most of his time in London, found a great many Canadian and American friends. "England welcomes all visitors with open arms, no matter from what country," he said, adding that, today, England needs visitors, particularly from this continent. However, he advised persons intending to visit Great Britain to send food parcels to themselves there.

Despite London's scars of war, Mr. Williams said it is remarkable what a fine show can be staged for professional and pageant occasions.

He also remarked upon the enthusiasm with which the Britons welcomed the reopening of art galleries, museums, libraries and other centres of culture after being deprived of so many during the war.

Operations Increase Heights Of Japanese

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese medical scientists have started, with some apparent early success, to make short people taller by grafting pituitary gland tissue from cows to the thighs of the patients.

Experiments on 45 patients, averaging about 20 years old, the researchers reported Monday, showed they had grown 4.10 to 4.5 of an inch in one month. The operations were performed at Kyushu University hospital. Six of the operations were reported failures.

In one spectacular case a man grew nearly three inches in four months, the scientists said, and his mental activity increased. Before the operation he was said to have been able to write only elementary Japanese phonetics. Now, they reported, he can write junior phonetics with ease.

50 Injured In Wreck Of Crack Train

GRAND FORKS, N.D. (AP) — About 50 persons were reported injured, several severely, when 10 cars of the Great Northern Railway's crack Oriental Limited jumped the rails near Rugby, N.D., Monday night. About half the injured were taken to a Rugby hospital. The others were given first aid at the scene.

Rugby is 66 miles east of Minot in northwestern North Dakota.

The train, westbound from St. Paul to Seattle, was on time when the derailment occurred at Fargo, a siding stop five miles east of Rugby.

The train was made up of 18 cars. A railway spokesman said three day coaches, three tourist sleepers and a diner overturned.

Miss Ellingson, Peter S. Hitchcox Repeat Wedding Vows

Gorge Presbyterian Church was the setting for the marriage of Patricia Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ellingson, 706 Newbury Street, and Peter Gibbons Hitchcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hitchcox, 9 Boyd Street, which took place Aug. 13 at 8. Rev. T. H. McAllister performed the nuptial rites.

Baskets of white and pink gladioli decorated the altar and white tulle bows centred with white gladioli marked guest pews.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore traditional ivory slipper satin styled in period mode, with nylon yoke, featuring a softly shirred Bertha decollete, trimmed with a double row of lace and fitted finger-tip sleeves. The full skirt was gathered to a slim bodice, which was set with tiny self-covered buttons down the back.

She wore as her only jewelry, a single strand pearl necklace. A coronet of orange blossoms and seed pearls crowned her long veil and she carried white gladioli and red roses, showered with gladioli tips and rosebuds.

Miss Avis Ellingson, attended her sister. Her gown of blue whisper taffeta was made with off-shoulder neckline and bustle effect over the full flared skirt. Her long mitts were of lace and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white gladioli, pink carnations and swainsona, while similar blossoms were arranged in a coronet to hold her white shoulder-length veil.

Robert Flett stood with the groom as best man. The groom's cousin, Walter Hitchcox, ushered guests to their seats. Traditional wedding music was played by the church organist.

Pink and white gladioli decorated reception rooms of Cherry Bank, where the couple with their parents received relatives and close friends.

Pink and white tapers lighted the bride's table, which was centred with pink tulle and pink and white rosebuds and topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Toast to the bride's future happiness was proposed by the groom's uncle, Walter Hitchcox.

Mrs. F. LeGoff, Vancouver and Mrs. A. Bowman, Sidney, aunts of the bride and groom, presided at the coffee urns. During the evening Ronald Gleaves entertained the guests.

The newlyweds left on their wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. Mrs. Hitchcox changed to a suit of cameo brown gabardine, with bolero jacket, white accessories and corsage bouquet of Tailsman roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcox will make their home at Sooke.

To Be Married In New Brunswick

MISS RUTH DUFFY

WILLIAM J. MOORE

The announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy, Nauwegawauk, N.B., of the engagement of their eldest daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, to William John Myles Moore, is of interest in Victoria, the home of the groom-elect's parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Harold Moore, 1220 Craigflower Road. The wedding will take place at Holy Trinity Church, Hammond River, N.B., Aug. 21. Miss Duffy is a graduate in science from Mt. Allison University. Mr. Moore graduated in science from University of B.C. in 1946 and received his Master's Degree in Engineering from McGill University this year. Both are employed at the National Research Council in Ottawa.

S.P.C.A. Not For Fanatics Says Head Of Montreal Society

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is an organization, not of fanatics, but of people who believe in what their title implies, Mrs. A. E. Carter, president of the Canadian S.P.C.A. of Montreal, said in an interview in Victoria, Monday.

They believe in well-trained dogs who are put through classes to learn obedience. They hold no brief for people who allow a dog to wander all over someone else's furniture or person. Their business is to protect animals and to prevent cruelty and in the city of Montreal it is big business, carried on at efficiency pitch, through voluntary subscriptions.

"As far as dogs are concerned we like them properly behaved and hold special dog training classes and dog obedience trials to that end," said Mrs. Carter who has held the presidency of the Montreal society for the past five years.

URGES NATIONAL SOCIETY

The Montreal society, since it was the first formed in the Dominion in 1869, was officially titled the Canadian S.P.C.A., according to Mrs. Carter, who has during the course of her cross-country trip contacted S.P.C.A. officials in various cities, on the possibility of forming a nationwide organization.

"If we could have an organization across Canada similar to the American Humane Association, which operates throughout the United States, it would be a great help in unity and strength," she said.

OPERATE CITY POUND

Discussing the organization in Montreal, she said they operated four ambulances for small animals, a special horse ambulance and an emergency ambulance for small animals. The S.P.C.A. also operates the city pound. All ambulances have sirens and can go through traffic.

"We receive from 300 to 400 calls a day in Greater Montreal," she said. "During the summer-time, horses drop on the streets from heat exhaustion and one day last year we rescued seven such horses, another day five."

"In wintertime when ice is on the streets, horses slip and fall through fear. If we cannot get to them quickly enough they die of pneumonia."

Praising the co-operation of police, civic officials and general public of Montreal, Mrs. Carter said their tag day is a very colorful affair with bakery, ice and dairy vans all purchasing special tags for their horses. One year the police of Montreal put on a musical ride in one of the city's big squares as part of the tag day festivities.

"We have a free clinic for people who cannot afford a veterinary's services," she said. "The clinic operates two days a week and veterinarians in Montreal have co-operated wonderfully with us, taking month about in helping to run the clinic."

S.P.C.A. EDUCATION

Stressing the value of education in S.P.C.A. work, Mrs. Carter said the last thing the society wanted to do was to take anyone to court. That is done only when all else, including repeated warnings, has failed, she added.

"People who organize fairs, races and other affairs where animals are showing, ask us for our co-operation," she said. "Our inspectors go to the race tracks."

"The inspectors are sworn in as police inspectors by the Attorney-General's Department of the Province of Quebec and if they see an animal limping or seemingly in pain, while hauling a van, they have the right to order the man driving the van to take the animal off the street."

MANY SUBSCRIPTIONS

The society in Montreal is enabled to maintain its high level of efficiency through the sizeable amount of money received in voluntary subscriptions, Mrs. Carter said.

"The people of Montreal feel the S.P.C.A. ambulances are as much a service for the city as are the ambulances which pick up humans hurt in accidents and others needing aid in emergency circumstances."

Mrs. Carter who motored from the east with her daughter Sharon, a graduate in bacteriology from McGill University this spring, said she enjoyed every minute of her work and found it highly interesting. They will leave the city next week to begin the return motor trip to Montreal.

Keith Hobbs, Bride Now On Honeymoon

Pastel gladioli formed an attractive setting for the wedding Saturday evening in St. John's Church, which united Patricia Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Medd, 1013 View Street, and Keith Herbert Alfred, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hobbs, 817 Esquimalt Road.

Rev. George Biddle, read the nuptial rites for the young couple who are now on an up-island honeymoon.

The fair-haired bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white sheer with long sleeves and jewelry neckline, trimmed with lace and embroidery.

A full-length veil of embroidered net was held by a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride, whose only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the groom, carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Mrs. G. Price, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, gowned in mauve sheer and carrying an arm bouquet of mauve and yellow gladioli, while Miss Elva Hobbs, sister of the groom, wore blue sheer and carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli.

Flower girl was Miss Joyce Price, niece of the bride, in pale pink taffeta, trimmed with blue lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Mr. C. Price was groomsmen and ushers were Mr. P. Medd and Mr. D. Andrist. During the signing of the register Mrs. P. MacDonald sang "Because."

A wedding reception was held at the Esquimalt Community Hall where the mothers of the bride and groom assisted the young couple in receiving guests. Mr. F. Holmes proposed the toast to the bride. A three-tiered cake centred the bride's table which was decorated with pink carnations in silver holders.

For a honeymoon at up-island points, the bride traveled in a brown striped suit with white accessories and a corsage bouquet of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs will make their home in Victoria.

Esquimalt Must Count Every Cent; Has No Money For Hospital Grant

Money now in Esquimalt's treasury is all earmarked for various municipal projects which must be undertaken this year and the council has no money available to make a grant to the Royal Jubilee Hospital. Len Hobbs, chairman of the hospital's board of directors, was told at an Esquimalt Council meeting Monday night.

Mr. Hobbs appeared before the meeting to ask councilors to consider making a $1,000 grant from municipal funds to help maintain the hospital's operation until the end of the year.

CREDITORS CONCERNED
"Ours is a very well run and well managed hospital," Mr. Hobbs said. "But because of increased costs, we find ourselves with accounts payable amounting to over $100,000 and some of our creditors are becoming concerned."

He noted that during the first six months of the current year, Jubilee care to residents of Esquimalt amounted to $24,000. Of this total, $14,000 had been collected from the individuals concerned, leaving $7,000 outstanding.

Esquimalt's annual grant of $2,000, which was given early in the year, lowers this figure to $5,000.

"That's $5,000 written off for Esquimalt in the first six months of the year," Mr. Hobbs said. "That is for care of indigent residents of this municipality."

REEVE REPLIES
"We fully appreciate the hospital's position," Reeve A. I. Thomas replied. "But this council is in just as tough a difficulty as the Jubilee."

"We are in a very desperate financial position," Mr. Hobbs continued, "and are earnestly appealing for your best consideration."

"We have made application time and again to the Provincial government and the Dominion government for justifiable assistance. Oak Bay and Saanich have both received support, but we have not."

Much of Esquimalt territory is Crown land on which the municipal government cannot collect property or improvement taxes. The naval dockyard, H.M.C.S. Naden and the Army garrison are examples of this, it was noted.

"We have to maintain roads over which Dominion and Provincial government vehicles may travel," the reeve continued. "Yet we receive no assistance."

"There's all kinds of work needing to be done. But we just haven't got the funds to do it. We are trying to get along by doing only the work which is most urgent," he said.

WOULD BACK SWEEPSTAKE
"We fully realize your position, however, and if there is any possible chance for us to squeeze out a few dollars, you will be given some," he told Mr. Hobbs. "I'm not a gambler," Reeve Thomas exclaimed, "but I'd back up a sweepstake which would give relief to such hospitals as that."

Councillor G. R. Guillemaud was in agreement on this point. "It's a poor system where you have to ask those who do pay their hospital bills to pay the bills of those who don't."

22 Schoolteachers Enroll In Car-Driving Course

VANCOUVER (CP) — First Canadian course in automobile driving for high school teachers, was opened Monday at the University of British Columbia. The course, part of a campaign to have driver training included in the high school curriculum, will equip the teachers to instruct teen-agers in driver technique. Twenty-two teachers are attending the week-long course.

Esquimalt Workers Request Pay Boost

A petition from the outside employees of Esquimalt Municipality, requesting a $15 a month pay increase to help meet the recent increase in the cost of living, was read before a meeting of the Esquimalt Council Monday night.

The council turned the matter over to the finance committee for study. The committee will report back with a recommendation at a future meeting.

As 19 men are now employed by the municipal works department, the granting of the requested pay increase would mean an additional $285 monthly burden on the Esquimalt treasury.

A similar petition was presented by the workers last April and their request turned down.

Esquimalt Briefs

Repair work has been commenced on the section of Esquimalt Road, between Lampson Street and Memorial Park, Ed Fulcher, municipal engineer, reported before a council meeting Monday night. Surfacing will be done within 10 days. Temporary improvement has been made to Craigflower Road and Tillamook Road, between Colville and Craigflower, has been regraded.

Esquimalt Council has met with property owners in the new Bryden Court subdivision to discuss installation of a sewerage system. The property owners are willing to carry the cost of installation.

George Campbell, 1189 Munro Street, has asked Esquimalt Council to top or cut down eight large fir trees in Saxe Point Park which overhang the roof of his house. During gales last winter, he wrote council, the trees threatened to come crashing down.

Esquimalt Court

Pleading guilty to a charge of stealing a musical instrument from H.M.C.S. Naden, Eric Reay, no fixed address, was sentenced in Esquimalt Police Court Monday to two months at Oakalla Prison Farm.

A fine of $25 was the sentence imposed on J. B. Nagle, a United States navy seaman, who pleaded guilty to a charge of taking a car without the owner's consent. The car was owned by Thomas Bradley, Springfield Road.

Favors Ottawa Aid For Highway Work

Mrs. Nancy Hodges, Victoria M.L.A., today endorsed a City Council resolution favoring federal government aid for construction and maintenance of inter-provincial highways.

"After all," she said in a letter to the city, "these highways are constituent parts of a trans-Canada highway system, and as such should be maintained on the highest possible standard throughout the country."

As to a second resolution favoring establishment of a federal highway commission, Mrs. Hodges states:

"I am not prepared to endorse this until I have had an opportunity of looking into it and studying its implications and ramifications which, however, I will do without delay."

A similar reply to the city's request for endorsement of the resolutions came earlier from Finance Minister Herbert Anscomb when he was acting as premier in the absence of Hon. Byron Johnson.

4 Cards Clues In Vancouver Case

VANCOUVER (CP) — Four playing cards dropped beside a safe spelled "showdown" for two men Monday.

Joseph Gauthier, 23, and Norman Blaney, 25, pleaded guilty to breaking and entering a meat firm's office and taking $7 from the safe. They were remanded for sentence.

Beside the opened strong box police found four cards. A pack of cards found in Blaney's home, with the same cards missing, led to the identification.

Los Angeles May Save Sky From Advertisers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The city council looked into the Bible Monday and decided to oppose skywriting.

It adopted a motion opposing it and asked the Civil Aeronautics Authority and the California State Aeronautics Commission to stop it.

Councilman George H. Moore commented:

"It would seem we have direct instructions from the Bible. The Good Book says 'The heavens declare the glory of God.'"

Councilman John C. Holland said: "The sky was the only unpolluted item of nature we had left."

QUEEN OF LANGFORD—Lorene Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Murray of Colwood, sponsored by Belmont High School, has been elected Langford Fair Queen. She won 87,560 votes. Shirley Allan of the B.C. Government Employees' Association, Langford branch, was second. Gertrude Pederson from Langford Community and Athletic Club was third. The crowning ceremony will be held at the Community Hall Aug. 26 at 7.30 in connection with the community fair. The contest was sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association.

Once Wealthiest Industrialist Claims He's Now Poorest German

KOENIGSTEIN, Germany (AP) — Germany's one-time wealthiest industrialist, ailing Fritz Thyssen, claims to be the poorest man in the country.

The grey-haired 74-year-old, six-footer, who says he now is stateless, told a German denazification court here Monday he is "living off" his friends.

The trial opened in this little mountain resort town where the former industrialist and his wife live in a sanatorium. He must answer charges of being a major Nazi offender under the German denazification laws.

The court acknowledged Thyssen's statement he is without nationality and that, since he is stateless, he has no objections to being tried.

Thyssen said emphatically: "I have no intention of regaining German citizenship."

The 330-page indictment is based primarily on Thyssen's memoirs, which he wrote in southern France after he had fled from Nazi Germany the day the Second World War broke out in 1939. The book, "I Paid Hitler," published in the United States and England in 1940, is being used to prove Thyssen was partly responsible for Hitler's meteoric rise.

2 DAYS TO READ CHARGE

After reading of the indictment, taking two to three days, about 20 defence and prosecution witnesses will be heard during the trial.

Main points of the indictment accuse Thyssen of having actively supported Hitler and the Nazi Party since 1923, when he allegedly paid 100,000 gold marks ($25,000 at the then official rate of exchange) to Hitler and Gen. Erich von Ludendorff.

He also is accused of having paid another 150,000 marks for purposes of "purely personal representation" to Hermann Goering, who committed suicide in Nuremberg.

Voluntary Rationing Of Butter By Dealers May Start Soon

OTTAWA (CP)—W. K. St. John, secretary of the National Dairy Council, said here voluntary rationing of butter by dealers in principal Canadian cities may begin shortly.

He said the move was made necessary by the prospects of an acute shortage of butter which will reach its critical stage during the Christmas season.

In an interview Monday night he urged that the government announce its plans to meet the shortage as soon as possible.

"Already," he said, "there exists a gray market in butter in many centres in Canada. This will soon turn into a black market unless the government does something to ease the shortage."

Mr. St. John estimated Canada's stocks of butter during the next 12 months will be approximately 24,000,000 pounds below requirements. Canada's shortage last year was about 10,000,000 pounds.

While butter stocks were going down, consumer demand for butter was rising, he said.

Reports from western Canada indicated the flow of beef cattle to the United States also would have an adverse effect on butter production. Because of the incentive for higher prices, farmers might ship some of the dual-purpose cows across the border.

Meanwhile, Mr. Justice Patrick Kerwin of the Supreme Court of Canada, set Oct. 5 as the date for the hearing on the constitutionality of Canada's 62-year-old oleomargarine ban.

34-DAY HEARING

Butter substitutes was one method the dairy council recommended to ease the butter shortage. The hearing is expected to last three or four days, but final judgment is not expected to be handed down until some time later.

Mr. St. John suggested the government should investigate the possibilities of obtaining butter

Joan Fontaine In Moving Love Story

Set in the magnificent background of Vienna as it looked in the latter part of the 19th century, one of the screen's most powerful love stories is presented in Universal-International's "Letter From an Unknown Woman."

A Rampart production, co-starring Joan Fontaine and the French star, Louis Jourdan.

The film, which arrived today at the Odeon Theatre, artfully and dramatically weaves the poignant story of a girl whose love for a man is so all-encompassing that it follows her through a turbulent 14-year period, bringing death to her and knowledge of her past to him when it is too late.

PLAZA THEATRE

One of England's favorite actresses has reached a pinnacle in her career in an American motion picture. She is Jessica Tandy who plays "Janet Spence" in "A Woman's Vengeance."

The Charles Boyer starrer now at the Plaza Theatre.

Miss Tandy was born in London and decided, at the age of eight, to become an actress. She never changed her mind.

An older brother, Arthur, succeeded in getting her launched with the Birmingham Repertory theatre. Her experience with this group landed her a role in "The Matriarch" which opened on Broadway with Constance Collier as the star of the show.

ATLAS THEATRE

Two of the most widely-discussed productions ever filmed, "The Grapes of Wrath" and "Tobacco Road," are now teamed at the Atlas Theatre.

Both a study of "little people" the new familiar stories of the Joads and the Lesters both raised a furor of excited comment from coast-to-coast in their initial appearances; one as John Steinbeck's best-selling novel and the other as the record-shattering play that ran on Broadway with unabated attendance for eight years.

YOKF THEATRE

Hal Roach's first postwar offering, "The Hal Roach Comedy Carnival," is chock full of laughs from the word go. This feature-length comedy in life-like Cinecolor sets a standard in comedy entertainment that will be hard to beat.

With situations tailor-made for the juvenile audience, the film includes plot twists and deft comic acting to delight the youngsters' parents as well.

OAK BAY THEATRE

An avareicious Oriental potentate, his beautiful woman accomplice and a crafty ship's barber conspire against Sinbad in his search for a fabulous treasure in RKO Radio's thrilling technicolor spectacle, "Sinbad the Sailor," a story of romance and adventure in the ninth century which is now at the Oak Bay Theatre. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Maureen O'Hara and Walter Slezak are starred.

RIO THEATRE

Dick Tracy has his most exciting adventure to date in RKO Radio's new thriller, "Dick Tracy's Dilemma," featuring Ralph Byrd, Lyle Latell and Kay Christopher is at the Rio Theatre. A daring fur robbery is the basis of the suspenseful action.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Avon Long, remembered for his performance in Gershwin's opera, "Porgy and Bess," does a number, "Tourist Trade," in Warner Bros' brilliant musical, "Romance On The High Seas," a Michael Curtiz production, with color by technicolor, which is now being shown at the Capitol Theatre.

Ken Smith won first prize for "Nature Boy" in the Y.M.C.A. camera club competition on picnic scenes. Second honors went to Greg Thomas for his "Philosophers," while Maurice Pickering with "Interest" and Ken Smith for "Still Life" tied for third prize. Norman Messerschmidt showed some beautiful color slides to the club.

10-Year-Old "Shoots" DEER

WELL... here we are in the groove again, to try & sell & entertain. We've been out on the States for a week or so, went up a high mountain & on its plateau. Snapped a bear, a racoon & deer, 5,000 ft. up in the thin atmosphere. The G.F. for awhile, steered from the back seat, when the mountain sheer-dropped... from the concrete. "Do you H-A-V-E to drive, so close to the edge, I wish along here, they'd grow a hedge." Trudie read her comics, & didn't much care, that there was a glacier... high up there. "For Pete's Sake," I said, "after all our plans, you just bury your head in 'Superman's.' We brot you both down to this bustling nation, it's supposed to be part... of your education. And we've driven MILES to get up here." "LOOKIT," cried our eldest, "my camera... that deer."

THESE LOUNGES aren't dear... only $55.00 at Humber (Bargain) Brothers... open up with NO centre ridge to cozy sleep 2.

THIS DEER didn't leap to hide in the rough, and show its little powder puff. But daintily walked right up to the car, panhandling I knew... for a chocolate bar. But we shot her picture just the same, tho I was doubtful... of the aim. Trudie looked up & her only remark, "Did THAT follow us here... from Beacon Hill Park?" Then we drove on up & very soon, on the shoulder road... we saw the racoon. A lazy fellow I saw by his stride, walking backwards... thumping a ride. "You see," I said, as his thumb gave a jerk, even animals... when they have to work, turn into bums, haven't any pride, just want to hang on... go along for the ride." "Well, Gosh," sed Trudie, "not this afternoon, would I want to ride with that racoon."

BUT WE had to work hard to bring you THIS KIND of quality in a bedroom suite... see it in our window for only $119.00... a blonde beauty.

The hair-pin turns were everywhere, and so around the next... we met the bear. It was misty now... more than a drizzle, I wondered if he... could be a grizzly! Trudie threw down her comic book, at LAST here was something... that made her look. "Golly... Daddy... he's NOT from our park, I'm kinda scared 'n' it's getting dark." "Now it's all right dear," & I beeped the horn, "just probably wants to... to pull out a thorn." But he DIDN'T move, I was shaking a bit, as down in my tummy I sunk in its pit. Should I push the throttle to the floor, I'd never smacked... a bear before. Or should I stop... Oh... my tum-tum, but all we could offer... was some gum. Then a car drew up in the time-of-nick. "DON'T FEED HIM," cried the ranger... "that bear is sick. I've checked with the tourists at the Lodge above, chocolate bars they've sed... he sure does love. And from their stories... all combined, up to now he'd had... 72 different kind." Into my mouth I crammed our gum. "Bears," sed Trudie, "sure are dumb," as she gave Mr. Bruin a rather bored look, and for excitement went back to her comic book.

B.C. Packers Fears Power Developments Hurt Salmon Streams

VANCOUVER (CP)—Concern over power development in B.C. salmon streams was shown Monday in the annual report of British Columbia Packers Ltd. The report also showed concern over the raw salmon export situation to the United States and shrinkage of demand for canned herring.

"If the experience of others teaches us anything, we should have learned that power dams and salmon... have not yet been successfully associated on any stream in northwest America," said President J. M. Buchanan in the report.

"We trust that our governments, both Dominion and provincial, will make appropriate arrangements to prevent the B.C. salmon fisheries from becoming another field of disastrous experimentation."

The report showed a net profit for 1947 of $1,578,897 compared with $644,546 in the previous year.

Sales of fish products for the year totaled $28,752,968. Cost of sales was given at $23,522,808, general expenses $3,863,421, and income tax provision $1,581,421.

Because of lack of demand, Mr. Buchanan said the B.C. canned herring industry will have to cut back its production materially and examine other forms in which the raw product may be processed and marketed.

The report makes no specific complaint on the raw salmon export situation, but it said: "Obviously United States canners will look to Canada for raw fish supplies only under circumstances favorable to themselves. It is in the long-term interest of Canadian fishermen to have our B.C. processing industry maintained on a sound and healthy basis."

Sockeye salmon may not be exported either fresh or frozen. John may be exported fresh up to Sept. 1 and there is no prohibition against export of frozen cohoes.

Plans To Continue Rail Rate Fight Mapped In Winnipeg

WINNIPEG (CP)—Representatives of Canada's four western and three maritime provinces today studied plans for continuation of their joint opposition to the granting of railway freight rate increases.

Their meeting, which opened Monday, was in full swing today following arrival of all delegates. Only Ontario and Quebec are without representation.

Their program calls for a three-point fight against the increases: the course to be followed in continuing the appeal against the 21 per cent increase allowed last March; the procedure to follow if the federal government appoints a royal commission to inquire into the freight rate structure; and opposition to the additional 20 per cent increase now being asked by the Railway Association of Canada.

Veterinary Award Given To Canadian

SAN FRANCISCO (CP)—Col. A. E. Cameron of Ottawa, who helped develop a vaccine against a bacterial-warfare disease was honored Monday by the American Veterinary Medical Association.

Col. Cameron, former veterinary director-general of Canada and a veteran of three wars, was awarded the International Veterinary Congress Award for 1948.

Rinderpest, a destructive disease of cattle, was a potential threat to the wartime meat supply because the Germans were suspected of being able to bring the plague to North America. In a top secret laboratory at Grosset Island in the lower St. Lawrence researchers under Col. Cameron developed an effective vaccine against the disease.

Town Planner Would Have Airport Closer To City Than Patricia Bay

The building of an airport closer to Victoria than the existing one at Patricia Bay, the complete renovation of old and unoccupied buildings on Government Street and the institution of diagonal parking on Douglas Street were among suggestions offered by J. C. Nichols, manager of the model Country Club development in Kansas City, and foremost American authority on town planning, in an address Monday to a joint meeting of the Victoria Gyro Club and Real Estate Board.

"You have a beautiful city," Mr. Nichols said. "But improvements could be made."

The proposals put forward at the meeting, Mr. Nichols explained as things which had come to mind while taking a quick look around.

Here on a vacation, the speaker noted: "You can't solve the mistakes of the past and make perfect plans for the future in a few weeks."

To form a master plan for improvement and development of Greater Victoria would take more than a year and would require the co-operation of everyone. But such a master plan would be well worth the effort, he said.

200,000 POPULATION

"By 1975 your population will be beyond 200,000," he prophesied. "You should plan for that."

With the ever-increasing use of the airplane as a means of transportation, Mr. Nichols stated, Victoria would do well to have an airport much closer to its business district than the one which now serves it.

"The airport in Kansas City is just a six-minute drive from our hotel district," he said.

On the subject of renovating old buildings, the speaker declared it of utmost importance to any city to have the value of its down-town buildings stabilized and maintained.

"I notice along Government Street some old buildings going empty... That should not be. I suggest these buildings be fixed like new."

With regard to parking, Mr. Nichols thought Victoria fortunate to have wide streets throughout its business district and suggested the width of Douglas was ample to allow diagonal parking on both sides.

The speaker saw two advantages to diagonal parking—one, space is provided for nearly twice as many cars, and two, it takes less time to get in and out.

"By actual test, we have determined it takes 17 seconds to get in or out of a parallel parking space."

Mr. Nichols says streets 70 feet or more in width are wide enough to have cars parked diagonally on both sides and streets between 60 and 70 feet, wide enough to have cars parked diagonally on one side and parallel on the other. Streets less than 60 feet in width should have parallel parking only.

Mr. Nichols remarked favorably on the city's transportation system and the location of Beacon Hill Park.

In his own Country Club district, a 5,000 acre development which has a population of 50,000, there are 11 shopping centres, 15 schools, four 18-hole golf courses and 17 churches.

The speaker was introduced by H. C. Holmes and thanked by J. N. Fraser.

Strikebound Plant Ordered Closed

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP)—A shutdown of the strike-bound McKinnon Industries has been ordered by company officials.

The move, taken after minor skirmishes Monday between office workers and salaried personnel and pickets, leaves only company police in the sprawling plant which normally employs more than 3,000 St. Catharines workers.

The company, a subsidiary of the General Motors Corporation, has been strikebound since July 14, when Local 199 of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) called out 2,650 production workers in an effort to obtain parity of wages with Oshawa and Windsor General Motors workers.

"The union has seen fit to resort to unlawful mass picketing of our plant," a company official said. "We do not want to have our supervisory, salaried and office personnel subjected to the abuse many of them received this morning. It has, therefore, been decided to close down all operations until further notice."

The union asked for a 26-cent-an-hour wage increase.

City Hall Employees Accept $17.50 Wage Increase Offer

Wage increases of $17.50 a month retroactive to June 1 will be given 130 civic employees in "inside" jobs.

It means additional costs to the city of nearly $16,000 this year, and for a 12-month period, over $27,000. Cost per month totals nearly $2,300.

It was revealed at a meeting of the City Council Monday by Ald. Charles Banfield, civic service committee chairman, that after two days of negotiations the $17.50 a month offer had been made to the "inside" staff.

At a meeting of employees Monday night, the offer was accepted. Decision was reached by secret ballot. Employees also endorsed several changes to their working agreement approved by the civic service committee.

It was the second wage-increase granted city employees this month. Policemen were given boosts ranging from $5 to $20 a month retroactive to April 1. The increases were awarded by a board of arbitration. Date of payment was the decision of the Police Commission.

Police increases will cost the city $15,360 in one year.

MORE TO BE CONSIDERED

There still are approximately 400 city employees still to be considered in the matter of wage hikes.

"Outside" employees have asked for a 25 cent an hour across the board boost based on a 40-hour week. Firemen are expected to seek higher pay when their working agreement expires later in the year. Other employees including library workers, will be considered also for wage increases.

The City Council went on record earlier favoring increases for all employees if policemen were given a wage award by the arbitration board.

The $17.50 offer to "inside" employees was made after several compromises by the civic committee and the employees' association.

Ald. Banfield said the employees first sought $22.97 blanket increase retroactive to Jan. 1.

The committee countered with an offer of $15 across the board from June 1.

The employees came down to $18.50 from Jan. 1, and the committee offered $17.50 from June 1 to break the deadlock.

Extend Time Limit On Property Offer To Ex-Servicemen

Ex-servicemen have until Aug. 31 to buy city residential property for one quarter of the assessed value.

City Council on Monday extended the time limit of the "bargain sale."

In May, 1945, a resolution was passed by the City Council authorizing the Lands Department to sell lots at specially reduced prices to servicemen under specific conditions. One of the conditions set an expiry date as three years after the termination of hostilities in which Canadian forces were engaged.

The official date was Aug. 14 and the Lands, Zoning and Housing Committee asked that the conditions remain in force until the end of the month for all bona fide applications.

The council approved the sale in the last two weeks of four pieces of city property for $582.

Air Mail Volume Doubles

VANCOUVER (CP)—Volume of airborne mail in Canada nearly doubled in July as a result of the "all-up" service for one-ounce letters, postal officials said today. The new service is still in the experimental stage and officials declined to say whether it would be permanent.

Suggests Ceremony To Mark Opening Of Rebuilt Cook Street

Acting Mayor J. D. Hunter told City Council Monday a ceremony should be held in connection with the opening of Cook Street following removal of streetcar tracks and rebuilding of the roadway.

"People have been talking about Cook Street for 25 to 30 years and now that we have a fine, smooth street, I think we should mark the opening with perhaps a ribbon-cutting ceremony," the acting mayor said.

Aldermen nodded approval of the plan and agreed to discuss the question later.

Meanwhile Cook Street from Mears to May Streets will be made a through street. Aldermen gave the city engineer the go-ahead signal to install stop-signs at all intersections.

Acting on recommendation of a resident of Richmond Avenue, council approved installation of a stop-sign on the south side of Haultain Street at Richmond Avenue. The resident wrote the city stating control at the intersection was necessary in view of the number of traffic accidents which occur.

City Hall Rebuilding To Be Considered By Special Committee

Four city aldermen were named by Mayor Percy George Monday to a special committee which will investigate possibilities of turning the City Hall into a modern structure including stores on the ground floor, Douglas Street side of the building.

They are Ald. D. D. McTavish, M. Aubrey Kent, Ed. Williams and F. N. Cabellu.

Renovation of the building has been discussed since a plan to sell the building to a hotel syndicate failed to materialize. It was the intention of aldermen to erect a new City Hall in another part of town.

Mayor George recommended that City Council concentrate its efforts on rebuilding the present hall. He thought stores on the Douglas Street side of the building would eliminate a blind spot in the business district and also would provide another source of revenue.

Officer To Attend U.S. Traffic School

Acting on recommendation of the Police Commission, City Council on Monday made $800 available as part of the cost of sending an officer to Evanston, Illinois, for a traffic course.

Sgt. Brooke Douglass will take the Traffic Police Administration course of the Traffic Institute at Northwest University at Evanston.

He will be absent from his duties from Sept. 2 to Jan. 22 next year.

Exempt From Taxes

City Council on Monday approved a recommendation of the finance committee that Victoria Truth Centre property on Pentelwell Place be exempted from taxes.

The committee was given power to act in the payment of expenses for entertainment in connection with the coming national convention here of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

Named Superintendent

G. Bridges, an employee of the city water works for 32 years, was appointed superintendent of the department Monday by the City Council.

Appointment was made on recommendation of the civic service committee.

Mr. Bridges succeeds E. MacDonald who has retired after being on the payroll of the city for close to 45 years.

Former M.P. Dies In Saskatchewan

REGINA (CP)—Ernest Edward Perley, 70, former member of parliament for Qu'Appelle, Sask., suffered a fatal heart attack Monday night while attending an executive meeting of the provincial Progressive Conservative Party here.

A native of Maudgenville, N.B., Mr. Perley moved to Regina in 1883 with his father, Senator W. B. Perley. He was elected to the Commons as Conservative member for Qu'Appelle three times—1930, 1935 and 1940—before being defeated in 1945.

City Representative

Ald. Frank Mullin on Monday was appointed by the City Council to act as city representative on the Chamber of Commerce's Industrial Development Committee.

Four Fire Vehicles Bring $2,277 To City

Four fire department vehicles were sold by the City Council Monday for $2,277.

A 1936 Buick sedan brought $1,212; 1938 Pontiac coupe, $900; 1912 Seagrave hose truck, $50; 1922 Ruggles truck chassis, $115.

Sale of 500 pounds of steel for $3.75 a pound and 150 pounds of mixed copper and brass for $18 a pound also was approved.

At the same time, council approved spending of $2,624.

Tender of Canadian General Electric Company of $1,099 for electrical equipment for street lighting on Dallas Road was accepted.

Purchase of a $650 wire recording machine for the Social Welfare Department was approved, Ald. Margaret Christie stating it will eliminate the necessity of employing another stenographer.

And purchase of a new motorcycle and sidecar for $875 to be used by the street cleaning department was approved. It will replace a motorcycle of 1929 vintage in use still.

City Workmen Given Gorge Tunnel Job

City workmen will be employed in construction of a tunnel under Gorge Road to replace a broken storm drain.

The job was given them by City Council on Monday when an $8,925 tender from a construction company to do the job was considered too high.

Acting City Engineer Cyril Jones assured the council the tunnel could be constructed at less cost by civic employees.

Council approved construction of a five-foot cement sidewalk on McCaskill Street between Langford and Pine Streets under a local improvement scheme.

Reese Proves Spark In Brooklyn Drive

Pee Wee Reese is the fair-haired boy of Brooklyn Dodger rooters and the backbone of the club's field, or as some of the boys put it: "One of the few pros on the team."

The 29-year-old shortstop has not made an error in the Dodgers' last 25 games and his brilliant play both at bat and in the field has been instrumental in the Dodgers' bid to overhaul the pace-setting Boston Braves in the National League.

The popular shortstop played a leading role in the Dodgers' 6 to 2 triumph over the Braves in Boston last night, starting a four-run rally with a triple and handling eight chances in the field flawlessly.

The triumph cut the Braves' lead to two games over the runner-up Brooklyn and also enabled the Dodgers to take the vital five-game series, 3 to 2.

With the Dodgers leading 2 to 1, Reese, who is batting a cool .300, opened the eighth inning with a triple off relief pitcher Bob Hogue. Before the frame

Two W.I.L. Squads In Victories Over Coast Ball Teams

The grass looked green in other pastures to the Western International League today.

While Spokane was dumping Yakima, 4 to 1, in the only league game of the night, three of the other class B clubs jumped the fence to tangle with their parent Coast League clubs.

Salem spanked Portland Beavers, 6 to 4, and Wenatchee topped Sacramento, 8 to 4. Tacoma was nosed out by San Diego, 6 to 5, in 10 innings.

In addition to the Spokane-

Salem	57	68	.456
Wenatchee	56	67	.455
Yakima	41	84	.328

Yakima fracas, tonight's schedule has Victoria at Bremerton, Vancouver at Tacoma, and Wenatchee at Salem.

Spokane pushed across three runs on three hits and an error in the sixth inning to enable slender Frank Nelson to best young Dick Drilling in a pitcher's contest.

Nelson gave up seven hits, one more than Drilling, but never issued a walk.

Short scores follow:

City Softball Final Scheduled Tonight

Second and possible deciding game of the best-of-three series for the city softball championship will take place at Central Park tonight between Douglas Tire and Langford.

Douglas Tire, senior A champions, hold a one-game lead over the senior B titlists. Game time is 6:45.

Starting Friday a round robin competition for senior A clubs will take place. In the first game of the draw Bluebird Cabs will meet Brentwood Aces. Winner of the round robin will receive the Victoria Sporting Goods Cup.

Jockeys Penalized By Vancouver Stewards

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two jockeys Monday were penalized by Exhibition Park racing stewards for riding rules' infractions Saturday.

Jockey J. Martinez was suspended for five days for allowing his mount, Friarworth, to run up on the heels of No Count in the seventh race, and Jockey Avelino Gomez was fined $50 for crowding the field on the stretch turn in the same race when aboard Pondo Py.

Eaglettes Whip J. H. & E.; Sidney Leads Junior Final

Eaglettes took a one-game lead in the best-of-three final for the Island senior B women's softball championship last night by administering an 11 to 1 drubbing to J.H. & E. behind the one-hit pitching of Ruth Oster.

Oster in setting down the senior B city titleholders chalked up her 22nd victory of the season. The lone hit off Oster came in the second inning and accounted for J.H. & E.'s single run. Eleanor Orwood scoring on Irene Sande's blow through the middle of the diamond.

Winners jumped into a five-run lead in the first inning and

BRITISH Columbia racing fans, and there would be quite a number of them, who took in the racing program at Longacres Sunday, had the pleasure of watching Canadian-owned thoroughbreds do right well for themselves. Of course the major triumph was the smashing victory scored by A. Kennedy's Victory Gift in the $10,000 Longacres Derby. Starting as third choice the Winnipeg-owned filly won going away in the mud.

Third spot in the derby went to Dr. L. H. Appleby's Ohodry from Vancouver as the Canadian runners grabbed off most of the pot right from under the noses of the United States owners. In the fourth race Jack Diamond's World Wide, from Vancouver, took the winner's share of the purse while in the ninth heat the Bancroft and Snider entry of Dry Feet, one of the last sons of the great Dolan, picked up additional money by finishing fourth. All these runners, by the way, campaigned on the Lansdowne track during the 28-day meeting which closed July 31.

CHANCES of the Victoria Athletics finishing better than third in the Western International League pennant race may well be determined this week when the club engages in series with the Bremerton Bluejackets and Tacoma Tigers. Six games off the pace, at present, the club must win two of three tilts scheduled in Bremerton to gain. Should the A's play five games here with Tacoma, four victories will be the order to keep them right up close to the No. 1 berth. Victoria players are sure to be hustling extra hard in the series here against Tacoma. Reason—Joe Devine will be looking them over. The chief scout of the New York Yankees on the Pacific Coast will arrive in town tomorrow for his first look at the Athletics since the season opened.

ATHLETICS go into the series with Bremerton with their pitching staff in good shape. The hurlers are working in regular order and, if Manager Ted Norbert can get his starters to come up with complete games, the staff will be in good trim for the engagements against Tacoma. However, if he has to use two or three chuckers in any of the three fixtures they could be rugged come Thursday night.

MANAGER Jim Lackie's Douglas Tire softballers are over the first important hurdle in their bid for another western Canada crown. They completed the rout of Ladysmith Sunday and now prepare to go up against the mainland champions, either Vancouver Narrows or New Westminster Army and Navy. The tiremen, playing as Esquimalt Meat Market, defeated Army and Navy in the provincial final last year. With the first three games of the B.C. series scheduled here Saturday and Sunday it may prove a little rough on the local team's pitching staff. They have a great little thrower in Ken Gunter and, if he can get the boys off to a win in the opener, the tiremen stand a good chance to come through for the second year in succession.

FIGHT RESULTS

Oakland, Calif. — Lauro Salas, 128, Mexico City, decisively bulldoed Jacklieh, 130, San Francisco (10).

Ocean Park, Calif. — Bobby Dare, Buffalo, N.Y., decisively Tommy Garland, Ocean Park, (10).

Sidney Wins

In the city junior girls' final B city titleholders made it two straight over Hotshots in their best-of-five series last night with a 12 to 10 triumph. Sidney captured the first game, 15 to 6. Third game is scheduled for tonight at Central Park at 6:30.

Hotshots twice took the lead in the game but could not hold it against the hard-hitting suburban nine. Trailing 2 to 0 in the last half of the first frame Sidney scored four times to go ahead. Hotshots bounced back to take a 7 to 4 margin in the fourth but in the last half of the inning Sidney again scored four runs and sewed up the verdict with another four runs in the fifth.

Babe Ruth Baseball's Most Glamorous Figure

Home Run King Proudest Of Pitching 29 Scoreless Innings In World Series

Happy-go-lucky, Babe had his serious moments, too.

As his stature in baseball grew, the Bambino became the idol of kids and the target of autograph seekers.

It was a sick and lean Ruth that put on once again the famous No. 3 uniform on a day honoring him in Yankee Stadium, 13 years after he had retired from baseball.

President, Children Saddened

NEW YORK (AP)—Babe Ruth is dead.

The one-time New York Yankee slugger, wasted by two years' illness and almost constant pain, died of cancer of the throat at 8:01 p.m. E.D.T. (5:01 P.D.T.) last night. He was 53.

A priest who administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church said "The Babe has been prepared since July 21 for his death."

Ruth never knew that he had cancer, however.

More than 100 children who were gathered outside Memorial Hospital Centre for cancer and allied diseases walked sadly away after the end came.

They were representatives of the thousands of young and old who had stood vigil in relays outside the hospital where their stricken idol lay suffering. Millions of others all over the world had kept rooting for the Babe.

A mass for Ruth will be held Thursday morning in St. Patrick's Cathedral, but funeral plans were incomplete early today.

Two radio network memorial programs are scheduled for tonight—NBC from 9 to 9:30 p.m. E.D.T. (to 6:30 p.m. P.D.T.) and ABC from 9:30 to 10 (6:30 to 7 p.m. P.D.T.).

President Truman led the United States in paying tribute to the Babe, who battled his way to major-league baseball immortality during 22 playing years.

The President's message of condolence, first of many received at the Ruth residence, said: "A whole generation of boys now grown to manhood will mourn the passing of the home-run king of the baseball world."

"Babe Ruth had all the qualities of a hero, and as an exemplar of clean sport was an inspiration to tens of thousands of rooters of all ages all over the country."

The President told Ruth's family: "To you and to all who mourn with you, I offer this assurance of heartfelt sympathy."

Ruth lapsed into unconsciousness before death came.

"The Babe died a beautiful death," said Rev. Thomas H. Kaufman of the Roman Catholic Church of St. Catherine of Siena.

"He said his prayers," the priest stated, "and lapsed into a sleep—he died in his strength."

At Ruth's bedside when he died were his personal physician, Dr. Hayes Martin; another physician, Dr. Loton Rasmussen; the priest and two male nurses.

Dr. Martin revealed that death was caused by cancer. Through out the Babe's long illness the exact nature of his ailment had not been disclosed.

At the hospital when the end came were Ruth's wife, Claire; his two adopted daughters, Mrs. Daniel Sullivan and Mrs. Richard Flanders; his sister, Mrs. Wilbur Moberly; and two intimate friends, James Chapman and J. Paul Carey.

Ruth, who had been in hospital much of the time since undergoing a neck operation Jan. 6, 1947, was placed on the critical

SET 76 RECORDS

George Herman (Babe) Ruth, product of a Catholic training school for boys in Baltimore, retired from baseball in 1935 after setting 76 records—62 of which still stand.

He hit a total of 708 home runs, including 60 in one season, in regular games. After starting his baseball career as a pitcher, he was transferred to the outfield because his batting power was wanted in every game.

The New York Herald Tribune, reporting that a new drug had been used on Ruth, said today his death revealed that he "played a dramatic role in one of the most exciting medical investigations of the generation."

The newspaper said doctors tried to save his life with teroparin, and he was one of the first patients to receive injections of the new drug.

Improvement in his condition after the injections was described at first as remarkable, the story said, but the improvement was temporary, causing hopes for the new drug to fade.

The paper said the lessons

The Babe Wept At Ceremony

NEW YORK (AP)—At the celebration of the Yankee Stadium's silver anniversary on June 13, Babe Ruth's uniform with the famous No. 3 on its back was officially retired. In addition to the Babe, all the living members of the 1923 Yankee team were on hand, as were stars of other Yankee outfits.

"As president of the American League, I declare Ruth's uniform officially retired," said Will Harridge in making the presentation of the uniform to baseball's Hall of Fame. "It never again will be worn by a Yankee player either at the stadium or on the road. It is worn today by the Babe for the last time."

"Babe is one of baseball's immortals. His contributions to the game cannot be measured. It is with deep appreciation for what he has done for baseball that I hereby present his uniform to the Hall of Fame."

The fans greeted the Babe's appearance with a roar that almost raised the roof from the stadium. He strolled out of the dugout, wearing his old uniform and swinging a bat.

Standing at the plate and leaning heavily on his long yellow bat, the Babe, tears streaming down his face, spoke huskily into the microphone as a hushed silence fell over the crowd.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I just want to say one thing. I am proud I hit the first home run here against Boston in 1923. It is marvelous to see these 13 or 14 players who were my teammates going back 25 years. I'm telling you it makes me proud and happy to be here. Thank you."

Ruth's life was the subject of a book and movie, "The Babe Ruth Story." He presented the manuscript of the book to the Yale University library. When the film had its world premiere at a New York theatre July 26, 1948, Mayor William O'Dwyer issued a proclamation making it Babe Ruth day.

GREATEST ATHLETE

The proclamation said Ruth was "a man deservedly loved and admired by the youth of the entire nation." It called him "the greatest athlete of his time" and "an immortal in the game of baseball."

The onetime slugger left the hospital and walked slowly into the theatre, supported on both sides, to see the picture of himself. Ruth was so ill and tired that he could barely smile to the cheering crowd. He had to leave before viewing the entire picture and arrangements were

Coast Baseball Pays Tribute To Ruth

LOS ANGELES (AP)—President Clarence Rowland of the Pacific Coast League said flags at all P.C.L. parks would be at half mast tonight and there would be one minute of silent tribute before the games in honor of the memory of Babe Ruth.

"He was America's sports hero—a hero to young and old," Rowland said. "There will never be another like him."

mad for a private showing at the hospital.

Proceeds from the premiere went to the Babe Ruth Foundation, which is devoted to the encouragement of baseball-conscious youngsters. The foundation was conceived by Ruth in 1947. That same year he was engaged by the Ford Motor Company as a "consultant" in connection with its participation in the nationwide American Legion junior baseball program.

"Fellows, you know how I've always felt about kids playing baseball," Ruth said in a press conference at that time. "For the first time in my life, I feel I have a chance to put my ideas into action through the organized program sponsored by the American Legion."

"I owe everything I am to the kids. They didn't get up there and hit for me, but they were my inspiration all the time. Now I want to pay them back." He said he wouldn't be happy "until we have every boy in America between the ages of 6 and 16 wearing a glove and swinging a bat."

Joe Walcott Signed To Battle Lesnevich

NEW YORK (AP)—The Tournament of Champions has signed Jersey Joe Walcott and Gus Lesnevich to meet Sept. 21, a bold move that might give the fledgling promotional group control of the next heavyweight boxing champion.

Jersey Joe and the ex-light heavyweight king will tangle on the same card with the Tony Zale-Marcel Cerdan title tilt in Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium.

To get Walcott and Lesnevich to take part in the big fight doubleheader, the T. of C. guaranteed each of the heavies $50,000. At first sight it looked like a costly manoeuvre since Zale, the middleweight champ, has been guaranteed $120,000 and Cerdan $50,000.

But with the extra hundred grand, promoter Andy Niederreiter, who runs T. of C. got an "exclusive" agreement yesterday from both that the winner will

Darkness Intervenes To Give Eagles Win Over Navy Ball Club

Eagles moved two games up on Navy in the race for second place in the senior baseball league last night by downing the sailors, 9 to 4. Winners gained their lead by the seventh. In the top of the eighth, their defence fell apart, allowing Navy five runs on seven errors and a walk to tie the score. However, darkness had already settled and birdmen were awarded the game, with the score reverting back to the end of the seventh.

Eagles scored two off Navy hurler Don Evans in the first, but the bluejackets came back with a trio in the third and moved ahead, 5 to 2, with another in the fifth. Winners saluted it away in the last of the sixth, however, putting together five hits and three errors by Navy catcher Alf Kubicek for four big runs.

Toad Garnet hurled the win, giving up eight hits, taking seven on strikes and passing two. Evans was nipped for 12 safeties, fanned seven, but gave up six walks.

Tonight at Athletic Park, Ben's Bombers meet Eagles, starting at 6:45.

Short score follows: R. H. E.
Navy ..... 4 8 4
Eagles ..... 9 12 6
Evans and Kubicek; Garnet and Carson.

Cosmopolitan Entry List For New York Yankees' Ball School

Tomorrow, Aug. 18 is closing date for entries to the New York Yankees baseball school. The clinic will be held at Athletic Park Aug. 23 to 25 inclusive with classes twice daily from 10.30 to 2 and from 6.30 on in the evening.

In checking over the huge list of entries already received for the first organized school of its kind to be held in Victoria it has been found that the school will be cosmopolitan in nature. Disregarding any semblance of a color bar entries have been accepted from Indians, East Indians, Chinese and colored youngsters who want to learn to play baseball and learn the fundamentals of the game.

Joe Devine, head Yankee scout on the Pacific Coast, has signified his intention of remaining over for the three-day school and he will certainly be on the lookout for any promising material. Devine is scheduled to arrive in the city this week in order that he may look over the Athletics in the coming home stand against the second-place Tacoma Tigers.

Outstanding talent will be recognized. Proper methods of handling various positions, fielding, throwing from the outfield, sliding, batting and other vital aspects governing the proper way to play the game will be demonstrated.

Park facilities at Athletic Park will be at the disposal of the school during the clinic. Prizes will be presented to the four outstanding students and winners will be decided by the coaches of the school.

Vic Buccola Raps Ball For 10-Point Increase

All of the Athletics kept their roses above water in their efforts at the plate the past week with Vic Buccola registering the biggest gain on the club as he hoisted his mark some 10 points from 263 to 273.

Archie Wilson got back the three points he lost the previous week and is again up in the 380 bracket sporting a neat 382 for the league lead of games played here up until Saturday night with Yakima.

Wilson's league firsts include besides batting leadership, total bases with 342, triples with 21, runs scored with 110, and hits with 203.

Babe Jensen retained his runner-up position to Wilson for the club batting title as his average stayed at the .338 figure. Jensen is also second in RBI's with 89.

Seek To Pressure John Bromwich Onto Davis Cup Squad

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Friends of John Bromwich are putting on the pressure today to have the veteran tennis star added to the Australian Davis Cup squad if it should reach the challenge round against the United States.

Despite a growing contention that Bromwich's strength would be needed against the Americans in the inter-zone finals, Roy Cowling, selector of the Australian line-up, said there was little chance the two-fisted veteran would be invited to compete.

Bromwich, who has been on every Australian Davis Cup team since 1938, was left off the team this year when he refused to travel to United States by air.

Instead, he went to England by ship at his own expense and gained the finals of the Wimbledon championships before losing to Bob Falkenberg of Hollywood, Calif., in five sets.

The Sydney Daily Telegraph said in a front page editorial: "Without Bromwich we don't seem to stand much chance of defeating America. If winning the cup is more important than trivial personal issues—and the selector's dignity—the Lawn Tennis Association will now invite Bromwich to help us out of a mess."

Bromwich is due to leave England for Australia Thursday, the day the Australians begin the inter-zone finals against Czechoslovakia at Boston. The inter-

Ruth Baseball's Most Loved And Greatest Figure

NEW YORK (AP)—"Babe Ruth was the greatest single figure and personality in the history of baseball."

That was the tribute paid the home-run king who died Monday, by president Will Harridge of the American League in which the Babe played all except the last season of his major league career.

Ford Frick, president of the National League:

"Babe Ruth needed every inch of that big chest of his to protect the world's largest heart."

President Truman said: "A whole generation of boys now grown to manhood will mourn the passing of the home-run king of the baseball world."

"Babe Ruth had all the qualities of a hero and was an exemplar of clean sport," the President said in a message to Ruth's family.

Burt Shotton, manager, Brooklyn Dodgers: "All of us in baseball mourn the passing of a great and courageous fellow... today's players in particular owe a debt of gratitude to Babe Ruth."

John Quinn, general manager, Boston Braves: "Babe Ruth was probably the most popular figure in the world. His memory will never die."

At Meriden, Conn., Connie Mack, veteran manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, said: "We know he was the greatest home-run hitter the country has ever seen."

"What he has done for the youth of America could not be done by any other man. The young of our country thought more of him than of any man living."

GREATEST COMPETITOR

Bucky Harris, manager, New York Yankees: "The greatest hitter and greatest competitor of all time has passed away."

Leo Durocher, manager, New York Giants: "He was the greatest inspiration to the youth of America."

Edward G. Barrow, former president of the New York Yankees: "I loved the Babe dearly. There never has been anybody like him and there never will be."

Manager Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians said: "I'm terribly shocked. Baseball has lost the greatest name it ever had."

Tris Speaker, famed "Grey Eagle" outfielder who played with Ruth in Boston when "the Babe" entered the American League, said: "I remember the Babe more clearly as a great pitcher than as the greatest home-run slugger in the history of baseball. He once said, and I agreed with him, that his record of pitching 27 straight scoreless innings in world series competition will never be broken, although his homer marks may fall."

Sam Byrd, who replaced Ruth in the Yankee outfield and now a Detroit golfer: "Babe was just a big kid at heart, and we all loved him. He was one of the greatest sportsmen I ever knew."

Yanks Beat Giants In 11th Inning

NEW YORK (AP)—Buddy Souchock's two run homer in the 11th inning enabled New York Yankees to shade New York Giants, 4 to 2, Monday in the sixth Mayor William O'Dwyer trophy game before 17,091 fans at the Polo Grounds.

Southpaw Monte Kennedy went the route for the Giants, fanning 10. Red Embree and Joe Page divided the mound burden for the Yanks with Page, who entered the game in the eighth, gaining credit for the victory.

Boudreau Makes Healthy Gain In Batting Campaign

CHICAGO (AP)—Lou Boudreau's sizzling bat—which collected 19 hits in 37 trips to the plate for the week—brought his average to .361 and within striking distance of Ted Williams' American League-leading mark of .377.

Averages released Monday showed the Cleveland shortstop-manager had climbed 16 points from a week ago. In the same period, through Sunday's games, Boston's stringbean outfielder had dropped 10 points.

Dale Mitchell, Boudreau's teammate, climbed 10 points in the week to hold third spot with .336.

Joe DiMaggio's 105 runs batted in and 26 home runs for New York were high in those departments. Other leaders were: Most runs, Dom DiMaggio, Boston, 85; most hits, Boudreau, 141; most doubles, Tommy Henrich of New York, 30; most triples, Ed Stewart of Washington, 12; most stolen bases, Bob Dilling of St. Louis, 21.

Leading pitcher was Cleveland's Gene Bearden, whose 11 won 3 lost was good for a .786 average.

DARK MAKES GAIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Boston Braves' Alvin Dark picked up six points during the last week in his drive to overtake St. Louis' Stan Musial as the National League's bat leader—but he still has a long way to go.

Musial, who continues to lead the senior circuit in virtually every offensive department, dropped from a .388 batting average to .381 through Sunday's games.

The same official averages saw Dark, a sparkling rookie shortstop, only slip from .334 to .333.

The rise of St. Louis' Enos Slaughter from seventh to fifth place in the National's big ten was the other feature of the week's activities.

Slaughter rose from 314 to .323 to move up behind third-place Andy Pafko of the Chicago Cubs, who remained steady at .327.

Musial held first place in runs batted in, 92, replacing New York's Johnny Mize; most runs, 97; most hits, 164; most doubles, 32, and most triples, 12.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Fresh from his Sunday victory in the $10,000 Longacres Derby aboard Victory Gift, Vancouver jockey Paul Bailey Monday piloted home King's Honor, six-year-old brown gelding, in the featured $1,200 sixth race at Hastings Park.

Bailey, current leading jockey at the Vancouver track, paced his mount expertly, taking over the lead in the back stretch to win by two lengths over Fire Engine.

Jockeys Ken Smith and Ken Wilson booted home the daily double combination, Smith riding Cararus in the first and Wilson, Rock Steady in the second. The daily double was worth $45.25.

Largest mutual return of the day came in the eighth when Gala Hat, four-year-old brown gelding, clocked out a nose victory over Winkup to pay $17.30, $8.75 and $4.10. The one-two bet $74.45.

Wilson and Bailey shared riding honors with two wins apiece.

Still Further Cuts For British Smokers Loom; Black Market Busy

LONDON (CP)—Britain's dollar shortage has taken a painful turn for the man in the street—it is cutting down his cigarette supply.

The United States this year will supply 140,000 pounds of the flue-cured tobacco Britons like so well. This means about 60,000,000 pounds will have to be found elsewhere if present consumption is to be maintained.

Some of the deficit will be made up from other suppliers, including Canada, but the outlook is not promising.

A mere report that a cut was impending was enough to make cigarettes vanish from the shops. It was the old under-the-counter business again with a few packs grudgingly doled out to regular customers and stoney stares for strangers.

Less scrupulous merchants raised the prices sometimes as much as double. Some restaurants also increased the regular price of three shillings sixpence (70 cents) for 20 cigarettes with the explanation they had to get supplies from the black market. There were rumors the government might introduce some form of rationing, allowing each consumer a number of points as now is done for candies. London's Evening Standard snorted that this would be "most unwise."

Fined For Taking Car Without Consent

A fine of $50, or in default one month in jail, was imposed upon Kenneth Devon, who pleaded guilty in Police Court today to taking a car without consent of its owner.

Devon pleaded guilty after the Crown consented to withdraw a charge accusing him of stealing a Blue Line Transit Co. taxi parked in front of a Johnson Street cafe. The accused claimed he was drunk at the time and did not know what he was doing.

Miss Grace Adams At Band Concert

Miss Grace Adams will be back on the B.C.E. summer band program Wednesday to sing two of her favorite songs "Il Bacio" by Arditi, and "Giannina Mio" from Friml's musical comedy "Firefly." Art Stringer will sing "Without a Song" and by request "The Rose of Tralee."

G. Green who has frequently been heard in cornet duets and trios will on this occasion be heard in solo, presenting Carrie Jacobs Bond's beautiful song, "A Perfect Day."

The band will open the program with a spiritual march entitled "Square Shooter" followed by the ever-popular overture "Zampa." Other numbers to be presented are "Dance of the Hours" from La Gioconda, "Jolly Brothers Valse," "Intermezzo," characterized as a "Souvenir de Vienna," and the Hungarian Fantasia by Tobani. The concert will commence at 8, presented from the Cameron Pavilion and conducted by James M. Miller.

Butter Wholesalers Have Ration Plan

VANCOUVER (CP)—First steps to avert a critical winter butter shortage were taken today by some wholesalers here with inauguration of a rationing plan. Retailers will be rationed on a percentage of their normal purchases, and some stores will limit customers to one-pound sales.

Dealers reported, however, that while stocks are low, there is sufficient "for the present" under the wholesalers' quota system.

The children in North Ward district will call on householders Aug. 17 to Aug. 24 to collect paper and magazines to raise money to buy equipment for the new Kings Road playlot. Those wishing to donate are asked to telephone Mrs. L. Howarth, B1369; Mrs. G. Harris, G7874, or Mrs. A. McLeod, E5534.

Members of the Marine Workers' Social Club were hosts to 73 petty-officers, sergeants of marines and other ratings from H.M.S. Sheffield. Contributors to the program were P. O. E. Stallard, H.M.S. Sheffield; Mrs. M. Helliars, Mrs. Bella Foster, Mr. and Mrs. R. Noble Sr., Mrs. Mary Hulbert, Doug. Glover, George Hamel and W. McCorkell. All artists were accompanied by Mrs. Dot Glover on the piano.

Gen. Mark Clark To Address Institute In Victoria Visit

Gen. Mark Clark, of World War II fame, will be a visitor in Victoria next week. It was announced today by Col. J. N. Gibson, secretary of the United Services Institute.

Gen. Clark, who is now commanding general of the U.S. 6th Army in San Francisco, will arrive in the city either next Monday or Tuesday and will address a meeting of the United Services Institute in the Bay Street Armory at 8.30 in the evening.

Plans for the reception of the U.S. general are now under way and it is expected a guard of honor will be provided for him. Other plans for his entertainment during his visit are also being made.

Gen. Clark, first of the senior-ranking U.S. army officers to move into North Africa and Europe, commanded the U.S. 5th Army which captured Rome, first enemy capital to fall in the war.

Field Day Last Big Summer Event For School Children

Last big event for hundreds of children before school opens three weeks today will be the annual field day of the Victoria City Playgrounds to take place at 2 at the Royal Athletic Park tomorrow.

The field day will bring to a climax games and sports which have been organized for children of Greater Victoria since the end of June. Children from 10 parks will take part in the event.

Guests of honor will include Mayor Percy George, Dr. Henrietta Anderson, Ald. M. A. Kent and W. H. Warren.

The program includes a grand parade in which hundreds of children will take part. Many will be mounted on vehicles of all types decorated for the occasion.

Sports opened to both boys and girls include: 25-yard dash, 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, slow bicycle race, skipping race, still race and softball throw.

Folk dancing, tumbling exhibition, dramatic skits, boxing bouts and a pie-eating contest, will be some of the features at the giant event. The field day will be brought to a close with the awarding of playground crests.

Playground officials will include, Gordon Hartley, announcer; Dorothy Tabbs, recorder; Jan Flemming, craft exhibit; Peter Worthington, starter. Judges will be Frank Jarvis, Kay Isister and Margaret Braken.

Buses To Resume Cook Street Route

Tomorrow morning the B.C.E. buses on the South Fairfield route will resume regular service via Fort, Cook, and May streets, it was announced today. During paving work on Cook Street these buses were detoured via Rockland, Vancouver and Pakenham to Cook.

No Need To Look

Persons worrying about the possibility of the sky—or some part of it—falling and conking them on the head, should find something else to worry about for the chance of it ever happening is infinitesimal, H. A. Reid, amateur astronomer, told a "Summer Evening with the Stars" meeting Monday night in Victoria College.

Meteors which find their way into the earth's atmosphere rarely stay intact long enough to reach the earth, he said. The speed of the matter through the atmosphere produces an amazing amount of friction. So much, in fact, that the meteors are heated to a point where they disintegrate.

In two known cases where meteors did fall to the earth, no human beings were anywhere close. One fell in the Arizona desert, Mr. Reid said, and the other in Siberia.

Power Commission's Surplus Up Despite Reductions In Rates

The B.C. Power Commission, while reducing average rates during the fiscal year ended last March 31, nevertheless increased by more than $200,000 its operating surplus.

This was shown today in the third annual report of the commission which came into being in April, 1945, and which began actual operation on Aug. 1 of that year.

The report, presented by the commission to the provincial government, shows that at the end of the fiscal year the commission had acquired 20 electrical properties serving 21,421 customers at the respective dates of acquisition. By installation of 6,049 new services to that date the number of its customers has been increased to 27,470.

Currently the commission is expanding its services further and negotiating for the acquisition of the distribution facilities in Courtenay and Ladysmith.

During the last fiscal year the company reduced its generating units in operation from 55 to 51; reduced the generating capacity from 18,450 K.V.A. to 18,060 kilowatt-amperes, not including the Campbell River John Hart Development which has an installed capacity at the end of the fiscal year of K.V.A., extended its high-tension transmission lines from 181 to 285 miles; extended its primary distribution circuits from 905 to 1,131 miles; increased the number of power districts in operation from 16 to 18, and increased the number of kilowatt hours of power generated and purchased from 50,951,849 to 82,533,340.

Breakdown of its consumers' statistics showed the following: Residential, increased from 18,705 to 22,434; commercial, from 3,494 to 4,188; power, from 816 to 818, and streetlighting from 24 to 30.

MORE POWER USED

Average monthly consumption of residential customers increased from 74 to 84; while the average cost per kilowatt hour paid by residential customers was reduced from 5.0 to 4.5 cents.

The average monthly consumption of commercial customers increased from 278 to 308 kilowatt hours while the average cost per kilowatt hour paid by commercial customers decreased from 4.7 to 4.5 cents.

The commission showed its revenue from energy sales and miscellaneous sources during the year ended last March 31 at $2,146,689, compared with $1,411,834 for the previous fiscal year.

Operating expenses increased from $540,205 to $879,702 and interest on capital in operation increased to $224,221 from $148,504.

Power purchased by the commission increased from $182,897 to $283,737.

Operating surplus, excluding provision for reserves, grew from $540,226 during 1946-47 fiscal year to $749,028 for the 1947-48 fiscal year.

The operating surplus during the last fiscal year was distributed as follows: Maintenance and renewals, $265,873; sinking funds, $112,115; contingencies, $140,545, and stabilization reserve $230,494.

"Notwithstanding increased cost of labor and materials," said the commission, "it is to be noted that average cost per K.W.H. to both residential and commercial customers has been reduced. This result has been achieved through increased volume of business, which it is already apparent, is a direct result of increases in total number of customers and in the average K.W.H. consumption."

"Revised rate schedules of a promotional type (already in effect in 11 of the 18 power districts), improved generating and distribution equipment, and extension of the service to new customers are important factors which have the affect and will increasingly improve the volume of service."

Highlight of the commission's year was the bringing into production of its John Hart development. The capacity of this plant will be increased to 100,000 kilowatt-amperes in 1949.

British Woman In New York Backs Up Claim Of Butchers

A news story which originated July 9 in the Victoria Times, telling how local butchers were challenging the scientific classification of whales as mammals, and were insisting they were fish, has brought comment from a British woman now living in Lake Placid, New York, who believes the butchers here are quite right.

A letter expressing her feelings on the subject was received Monday by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

"In the New York Times (which received the story through the Canadian Press wire service) I note there is some controversy over the correct classification of whale meat," she wrote.

"It has for some time been part of our diet in England, and is bought and sold only in fish shops. . . . When cooked, whale meat looks like a very coarse, dry beef—hence the term 'meat' . . . One refers to crab meat and one does not buy that in a butcher store," she says.

"Should anyone in Victoria be unfamiliar with the best method of cooking whale meat," the letter continues, "they will find it best cooked in the oven with plenty of onions and seasoning to disguise the strong, fishy flavor."

Whole some stores are no longer handling whale meat, there is still plenty available and the demand for it will likely increase if beef prices soar to the point some observers are anticipating.

Whale meat retails at 39 cents a pound.

Magistrate H. C. Hall agreed to withdrawing the charge against the Indian woman. He deferred sentence until Wednesday, however, on the husband.

"He could at least be a little co-operative and tell police who supplied him with liquor," said the magistrate. "Maybe tomorrow he will be a little more co-operative."

Rush Work On New Classrooms For More School Pupils

Setting up new classrooms in Greater Victoria schools is being rushed in anticipation of increased enrollments at the opening of schools next month.

J. F. K. English, municipal inspector of schools, said today new rooms are being built at Willows and at Oaklands schools, one at the former and two at the latter.

In addition, rooms at Cedar Hill, Tolmie and Victoria West schools used in the past for storage and other purposes, are being converted into classrooms.

The auditorium at Tolmie School also has been partitioned to give two extra rooms for class work.

Mr. English said it will be necessary to make slight changes in some school attendance areas by which some children will have to change schools.

TO VICTORIA WEST

Some pupils in the Saanich Craigflower area will be transported to Victoria West and Lampson Street schools because of the inability of the four-room Craigflower School to accommodate them.

Parents whose children will be affected will be notified by mail later in the month.

It is anticipated that high school attendances will be the same as last year.

At Central Junior High School, an attempt will be made to accommodate larger numbers of grades seven and eight students. A few will be drawn from other schools and sent to the junior high. This will relieve crowding in the outer schools and give the junior high full enrollment.

French Ambassador To Pay Official Calls In Victoria

Francisque Gay, French ambassador in Canada, will begin his two-day visit to Victoria by attending Government House at 2 Friday afternoon, it was announced today.

Following his visit to Government House with Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks and Mrs. Banks, the ambassador will meet Premier Byron Johnson and other members of the provincial government.

From 5 to 6 the same day, there will be a reception given by the Alliance Francaise, the Cercle Francaise and the Enfants de France at the Union Club.

At 7 in the evening, the ambassador and his wife will be back at Government House again for dinner.

On Saturday, the ambassador will begin the day with a visit to City Hall, the garrison commander and Rear-Admiral E. R. Mainguy, Flag Officer, Pacific Coast.

Following a visit to the Canadian Joint Services College at Royal Roads, the ambassador will lunch at the Admiral's House.

Later, he will motor up to Shawnigan Lake to spend a two and a half hour visit to the French camp there.

From 8 to 10 Saturday evening, the ambassador will give a reception at the Union Club. At midnight, he will take the boat for Vancouver.

Company Records Put Before Court

Annual balance sheets of the Nanaimo-Duncan Utilities Co., from 1934, when the company began operations, to 1945, when it was taken over by the B.C. Power Commission, were submitted to Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson in Supreme Court today as a special hearing of a commission appeal against the acquisition price entered its second day.

In addition, the written report of an examination of company books by E. C. Mapson, chartered accountant, was entered as a court exhibit.

Alfred Bull, company counsel, questioned the grounds on which these documents were submitted. H. W. Davey, representative of the commission, said the documents were entered to show the financial history of the company, which he maintained was an important factor in establishing a correct appraisal value.

Mr. Mapson explained at length various items in his own report but Mr. Bull charged the presentation was misleading. He said he would later present the court with a company record which would create a very different impression from Mr. Mapson's report.

So far, 38 documents, dealing with various aspects of the company's financial position, have been submitted as court exhibits.

The hearing continues.

Inconvenient to attend the pound during this period," he states.

Leakage Of Military News Alarms Britain

LONDON (Reuter)—The cabinet, concerned at leakage of secret military information, will investigate how news leaked out that troops of the Guards Brigade are being prepared for sailing to Malaya, it was learned authoritatively today.

The news was first published in a London morning newspaper Monday, causing the War Office to be bombarded with inquiries.

Luncheon Given On Publication Of City Article

An article, featuring the delights of Victoria, provided the occasion today for a publishing company's luncheon at the Empress Hotel.

The luncheon was given by the Curtis Publishing Co., publishers of the magazine Holiday, in which the article appears.

Attending the luncheon were Acting Mayor J. D. Hunter, Walter Miles, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce; George I. Warren, managing secretary of the chamber; William J. Clark, president of the Victoria Publicity Bureau; F. L. Van Aistyne, vice-president and district sales manager of Curtis Distribution Co. of Canada; A. F. Clancy, assistant district sales manager; A. C. Bell, city manager, and R. MacDonald, assistant manager for Lovick's News Agency.

The article on Victoria will appear in this city on Wednesday.

Elderly Citizens Hold Park Picnic

The Sixty-Up Club for elderly citizens, which operates under the Recreation Council of Greater Victoria, held an enjoyable picnic at Beacon Hill Park. Alderman F. G. Mulliner congratulated the club on its growth and achievements. Seventy members and friends took part in games and contests and prizes were presented by Mrs. Hugh Mackenzie, chairman of the over-all committee. After tea several members entertained the group with songs and recitations. The club will renew its winter meetings towards the end of September.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. L. L. Hewitt, Central Junior High School cafeteria cook.

Claims Shooting Crows On Island

Provincial Game Department reported today that a person had come forward to claim the three loaded .22 rifles and eight boxes of ammunition discovered on Trial Island by two Oak Bay youths Sunday.

The claimant said he had been shooting crows on Discovery Island and cashed his rifles on Trial Island so that he could do a little fishing in his rowboat before returning home, according to game officials.

They are investigating.

W. J. Cargill Thompson, the first prizewinner in the Overseas League essay competition for schoolboys, a student at Harrow, will visit Victoria Aug. 24 to 28, as guest of the Overseas League. His essay is on "French Canada."

Do you know these signs of wasteful tire wear?

ANSWERS:

(a) Excessive wear in centre of tread, caused by over-inflation.

(b) Skalloped appearance, caused by fire being out of balance, and possibly by faulty brakes.

(c) Feathered edges, caused by faulty alignment.

These conditions mean wasteful tire wear. They can be avoided by correct adjustment of steering. Let us show you how low-cost precision adjustment can keep your car safe at a saving. We will gladly tell you in advance what your car needs and what the cost will be. Drive in 30-min.

Market Responds To Light Demands

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market today made its best showing in about two weeks.

Gains running from fractions to two points or so were liberally scattered through the list.

Brokerage quarters had a simple explanation for the rally. The market, they claim, has reached a sold-out condition. The law tempo of trading is a strong indication, in this view, that selling of any importance has run its course. The market, therefore, is in a position to respond easily to only light demand.

Canadian issues were strong. Hiram Walker moved up 1/2 and Canadian Pacific climbed 1/4. Dome Mines and Distillers Seagrams added 1/4.

Dow Jones closing averages:

Oils, Liquors Lead Upward Climb

TORONTO (CP)—Industrials and golds firmed in very light trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Base metals edged sharply upwards on some good gains and western oils were quiet and steady.

Refining oils, liquors and utilities led the slow upward climb in the industrials. Gains ranged up to a point as selected issues edged ahead. Bell Telephone, C.P.R., Dominion Steel B. Imperial Oil, Walker's, Canadian Breweries and Massey-Harris were among the better gainers. Several food issues advanced and papers were weaker.

Kerr-Addison weakened fractionally in the senior golds and some good gains were scattered throughout the juniors.

Gains more than doubled losses in the base metals list.

Home Oil, Leduc-West, Pacific Petroleum and Anglo-Canadian strengthened in western oils. Mid-Continent and Consolidated Homestead weakened.

Toronto index:

20 Industrials — 177.15, up 0.87
20 golds — 89.75, off 0.18
10 base metals — 96.45, up 0.33
15 western oils — 38.42, up 0.59
Total sales 372,000.
